

All Saints Healing Ministry,

There is some exciting news about All Saints Healing Ministry. Deacon Liz, Charlie and Lisa Clayton, Glenn and Joyce Harris, Bruce and Barbara Keene, Cheryl Paban, Connie Standish and I are in the process of establishing a chapter of the Order of St. Luke (OSL) at All Saints Church. We invite anyone who would like to become a founding member along with us or to keep this new beginning in your prayers.

OSL is an ecumenical organization dedicated to the Christian healing ministry. OSL is not a church, club, or social institution. OSL is an organization of faith, prayer, and service with Chapters throughout the world. Our desire to establish this OSL Chapter is a path for equipping each of us to bring the good news and encourage others to receive the daily healing power of Jesus Christ. Membership requires completion of the “26 Healing Miracles of Jesus Christ” which will be our first priority and is a requirement for official commissioning as a Chapter.

Below is how to join OSL:

The “26 Healing Miracles Workbook” will be mailed to you after you pay OSL dues of $45. Go to the website (www.orderofstluke.org). From the home page, you will notice “LOG IN” on the far left or “JOIN OSL” on the right of the tool bar. Click on either one to create a new account. Because we are not an official chapter yet, there is no ability to specifically sign up for our new chapter. When our chapter is officially commissioned, we will be the St. Barnabas Chapter of the Order of St. Luke at All Saints Church.

So if you are interested, please join us:
