How it works

Building Value's Builders Club invites YOU—our biggest supporters, DIY champs, and sustainability advocates—to help spread the word and showcase the amazing things you're doing with salvaged materials.

Whether you're a social media superstar or a maker with a love for repurposing, there's a place for you in the Builders Club. And yes—there are PERKS involved!

Brand Advocate

Perfect for: Social media fans, local influencers, long-time customers, sustainability champions.

Your Role: Post about Building Value on Instagram, Facebook, or Threads at least twice a month. Tag @BuildingValue and use your platform to gush about what makes us special!

Remake Artist

Perfect for: DIYers, upcyclers, artists, designers, and home renovators.

Your Role: Send us your before/after pics of Building Value finds you've repainted, reimagined, or refurbished. Share your DIY progress or how you've incorporated our salvaged materials into your space, artwork, or project. Send us your photos and videos or tag us @BuildingValue!
