

The United States Army Field Band & Soldiers' Chorus

The Musical Ambassadors of the Army
Washington, DC

October 10, 2016 - - Corning and Elmira, NY - - The internationally acclaimed United States Army Field Band & Soldiers' Chorus of Washington, DC will continue its long tradition of presenting FREE public performances when it appears in Powers Theater at the Clemens Center in Downtown Elmira on Wednesday, November 16, 2016 at 7:00 p.m. The Army Field Band & Soldiers' Chorus concert in Elmira is sponsored by 171 Cedar Arts Center and the Clemens Center.

The Concert Band & Soldiers' Chorus is the oldest and largest of The U.S. Army Field Band's performing components. These two ensembles combine to present joint concerts on their national tours. They have performed in all 50 states and 30 foreign countries for audiences totaling hundreds of millions.

The 65-member Concert Band and 29-member Soldiers' Chorus perform regularly in some of the most famous concert halls in the world, and just as often in the humblest auditoriums in the smallest of communities. The joining of these two ensembles allows them to offer unparalleled versatility of programming, ranging from orchestral masterworks and operatic arias to Sousa marches, jazz classics, and Broadway musicals. The band and chorus also perform independently, and have recently shared the stage with such ensembles as the Boston Pops, the Cincinnati Pops, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and the National Symphony Orchestra.

In addition to their national tours, formal concerts, chamber recitals, and educational outreach, members of the Concert Band and Soldiers' Chorus frequently represent the Army at formal and ceremonial functions, including the Presidential Inaugural Parade, presidential funerals, the Army All-American Bowl, and diplomatic efforts overseas. More than six decades as the military's most traveled musicians have earned them the title, "The Musical Ambassadors of the Army."
