PROFESSIONAL ACCOLADES

By Rob Denkhaus, Nature Center Manager

At the 2019 annual meeting of the Texas Chapter of the Wildlife Society, Nature Center Natural Resource Manager Daniel Price completed the society's year-long James G. Teer Professional Leadership Institute program. The program is designed to provide the skills and experience needed for wildlife professionals to become leaders within the profession. Daniel has long been an active contributor to the society and the wildlife profession, serving this past year as co-chair of the annual meeting's student activities committee.

Nature Center Manager Rob Denkhaus was co-chair of this year's plenary/program committee and had the honor of providing an introduction for Daniel and the other leadership institute participants who provided the meeting's plenary program. Congratulations to Daniel for these professional accomplishments, which help place the Fort Worth Nature Center & Refuge at the forefront of the wildlife profession.
