

Dear Friend in Christ,

What a wonderful idea and yet one so out of my comfort zone. This project is definitely meant for those gregarious people who enjoy sharing their thoughts and beliefs with others. While I enjoy communicating with others who have no problem sharing how their faith sustains them, I prefer to be a receiver not the transmitter. I am 81 years old and I am always a little surprised at the things that cause me to respond yes, when 99% of me is saying, "no way, they have to be kidding." So this letter is hopefully the work of the Holy Spirit controlling my fingers as well as my mind.
