ABOUT: LAURA STRONG

Laura currently works at the Regina Region Local Immigration Partnership (RRLIP) and has been working in the immigration sector since 2014.

Sport has been a consistent and important part of Laura's entire life, most notably in the area of curling, where she has represented NL Nationally 8-times at the Scotties Tournament of Hearts and currently plays for the Saskatchewan-based Amber Holland Team.

Laura has trained with the Multicultural Council of Saskatchewan (MCoS) to earn a certificate in Intercultural Facilitation, learning skills to facilitate workshops (such as this one) for organizations and communities as they strive to build a thriving and inclusive Saskatchewan.
