Olga and Amy are working on fundraising for three centers in the Sacramento area. They are accepting cash, cards or items for the infants. They thanked us for the many items that were brought to the Christmas event today. Amy would be happy to take us on a tour of the facilities.

5. Other Announcements: Betsy Mahan – Sacramento GOP Chair

Betsy said that the most recent election has changed the majority in our districts. On Tuesday, December 13th, there will be an Election Celebration at the Sacramento Headquarters for all the candidates that won. You can get more information by going to their website, www.saccountygop.com.

6. The meeting portion was adjourned at 12:20 pm and we were served our lunch. The program began at 12:45 with a Christmas Feud game conducted by our President.

Alfredo Cereno was our entertainment for our Christmas event. He played the keyboard and he was our vocalist for the afternoon.

7. We had a few gentlemen give positive reflections to our members and guests.

Josh Hoover thanked everyone for all the hard work to help him win his election.

John McGinness spoke about the positive things that were going on now during the holiday season. Mr. McGinness introduced the ultimate statesman, Senator Jim Nielsen from District 4. Senator Nielsen will be retiring and urged us all to stand up and be counted.

8. Peggy McGinness and Terri Lyn Alexander, Event Chairs ran our Opportunity Drawing with the help of John McGinness and Mike Gomez announcing the winners. The members brought so many nice opportunity gifts for our main fundraiser of the year.

9. Adjournment: The event ended at 2:15 pm.

Terri Lyn Alexander, Recording Secretary
