Message from the President:

President Gomez invited members with fundraising ideas to bring them to her.

Guest Speaker Josh Hoover:

- Assemblyman Hoover introduced key pieces of legislation – AB75, would restore accountability in the criminal justice system. This legislation would restore some pre proposition 47 and 57 rules and penalties.
- The Republican Caucus held a press conference at our Capitol regarding public safety and increasing crime. The California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation is releasing criminals early on a very secretive basis without public input and we don't know what process is being used.
- AB257-If implemented, would prohibit homeless encampments within 500 feet of schools, daycares and parks to make sure children are safe.
- There will be an audit of spending on homeless issues. The taxpayers have spent 15 billion dollars already and the problem is growing. Assemblyman Hoover will be on the Joint Legislative Audit Committee and will be able to practice oversight on these committees.
- The water from our recent storms is flowing out to the ocean while we are still in drought mode and this water needs to be captured. Governor Newsom was called out at a press conference to cut through red tape to allow Sites Reservoir to be built. The Governor has it in his power to do this.
- Assemblyman Hoover is also a part of California Problem Solvers Caucus which consists of 12 Democrats and 12 Republicans. They work to solve bipartisan projects such as: suspending gas tax, creating more funding for wildfire protection projects, and energy issues.

- Gas tax relief cards are proving difficult to use, criminals are hacking into them and the Legislative Democrats are taxing everyone who receives this card. Assemblyman Hoover and his colleagues have written a letter to Senators Padilla and Feinstein to exempt the taxing of these relief cards.
- Assemblyman Hoover will open a new district office in Folsom at the corner of Folsom Blvd. and Blue Ravine Road and an open house is planned for the near future. A podcast with Assemblyman Joe Patterson is in the works as is a weekly blog. You can sign up at: www.hooverforassembly.com.

Chris Bish announced she will be running for Congress against Ami Bera.
