

The Holy Eucharist

All Saints' Day

November 1st, 2026 at 9:30am

“All Saints” by Elizabeth Wang

Welcome!

It is our hope and prayer you will find our worship to be a place to encounter the God who loves you unconditionally. If you are visiting, we are especially delighted you have joined us for worship. No matter where you are in your journey of faith, there is a place for you here.

There are coloring materials and children's books in the entryway. The restroom is located in the Parish Hall, straight ahead of you as you depart the Sanctuary. After the service, join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall.

The Word of the Lord

Welcome

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray together.

All Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Revelation 7:9-17

Reader A reading from the Revelation to John.

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-10,22 Please join in reading the psalm responsively by half-verse.

1 I will bless the Lord at all times; *

his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 I will glory in the Lord; *

let the humble hear and rejoice.

3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord; *

let us exalt his Name together.

4 I sought the Lord, and he answered me * and delivered me out of all my terror.

5 Look upon him and be radiant, * and let not your faces be ashamed.

6 I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me * and saved me from all my troubles.

7 The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him, * and he will deliver them.

8 Taste and see that the Lord is good; *

happy are they who trust in him!

9 Fear the Lord, you that are his saints, *
for those who fear him lack nothing.

10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
but those who seek the Lord lack nothing that is good.

22 The Lord ransoms the life of his servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in him.

The Second Lesson

1 John 3:1-3

Reader A reading from the first letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12

Celebrant The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,

of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Reader The Lord takes great pleasure in us. God cares for us and hears our prayers. So let us pray:

Reader Bless your Church, O Lord. Increase our faith in you. Increase our love for one another. Increase in us a spirit of wisdom. (Silence.) We offer our prayers;

People Our hope is set on you, O Christ.

Reader Bless the human family, O Lord. Bless the poor. Bless the hungry. Bless those who now weep. (Silence.) We offer our prayers;

People Our hope is set on you, O Christ.

Reader Bless this good creation, O Lord. All things were made through you and by your resurrection they are given new life. We thank you that you are already making all things new. (Silence.) We offer our prayers;

People Our hope is set on you, O Christ.

Reader Bless our towns, O Lord. May we be known as a generous people—doing to our neighbors as we would have them do to us. (Silence.) We offer our prayers;

People Our hope is set on you, O Christ.

Reader Bless those in need, O Lord. You adorn the poor with victory; you fill those who are hungry. Make happy those for whom we pray, including those who have asked for our prayers: Annette, John, Jill R., Sally G., Bill, Joanne, Beverly, Jane T, and Bernice. (Silence.) We offer our prayers;

People Our hope is set on you, O Christ.

Reader Bless the saints who now rest from their labors, O Lord. Give to them the kingdom of God as a possession—for ever and ever. (Silence.) We offer our prayers;

People Our hope is set on you, O Christ.

Reader I invite your own prayers silently or aloud.

Celebrant These are our prayers. Receive them in your mercy. And grant us, O Lord, your peace—your peace that passes our human understanding. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing

Celebrant Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

People AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant Behold what you are.

All May we become what we receive.

Communion

At our church, anyone who wants to feel closer to Jesus is welcome to come to the altar to receive. Please come forward to the altar rail, filling in on the sides, and stand or kneel to receive Communion. Cup your hands to receive the bread. You may receive the wine by guiding the cup to your lips or by dipping the bread in the wine. If you do not want to receive from the chalice, you may touch the chalice and say "Amen." If you desire a blessing instead of Communion, please cross your arms over your chest and the priest will offer a blessing.

Stewardship 2027: Plenty Good Room

Stewardship has officially launched! In your mail, you should receive a letter from our Stewardship Chairs, our new Ministry Brochure, a pledge card, and information on proportional giving. Please prayerfully consider your offering of time, talent, and treasure to your faith community and return your pledge cards by November 22nd. Your offerings will inform the vestry's decisions on budget and programming. Thank you for your generosity! Use the QR code to make your pledge now.

Plenty Good Belonging

Our parish is a place of belonging — a community where each person matters, and each gift is cherished. Together we are the Body of Christ. This week, we prayerfully discern how we can best use our individual gifts to become a community where all share in the abundance of God's love. At Church of the Advent there is Plenty Good Room for all.

Now there are varieties of gifts but the same Spirit, and there are varieties of services but the same Lord, and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

Holiday Bazaar Announcements

Our annual Holiday Bazaar on Nov. 14th, is quickly approaching! See below for ways to help with our biggest fundraiser of the year!

- Vendor Tables Available at Our Holiday Bazaar!

Looking to showcase your products this holiday season or know someone who is? We have 3 vendor table spaces still available at our Holiday Bazaar! Tables are $30 each and are a great opportunity to connect with the community and share your goods.

Interested in reserving a table? Contact the parish office for more information!

- Calling All Holiday Bakers!

We are looking for volunteers to bake a batch or two of cookies/bars/quick breads that the Wilkinsons will package up and sell at the cafe window for the holiday bazaar.

Please use the QR code to sign up and be sure to leave a comment to let us know what you will bring! We'll be asking for the baked goods to be dropped off either Friday afternoon or early Saturday morning (Nov. 14).

- Holiday Bazaar Workshops

Join us on Wednesday nights in the Parish Hall from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm to work on one of the many items we'll be selling at this year's holiday bazaar. We provide the instructions and supplies along with some really great company. It's also a relaxing way to unwind from the workday's stress. Your support will help us make this year's bazaar a great success! For more information, you can contact Janet Rossi (rossi.jet@gmail.com).

- Help Us Fill Our Bazaar Raffle Baskets! (New this year!)

We're collecting donations to create three themed raffle baskets for this year's bazaar: Outdoor Adventures, Kitchen Fun, and Relaxing Spa!

Parishioners are invited to purchase items to help fill these baskets and raise money for our church.

Scan the QR code to shop our Amazon wish list and help make these baskets a success. Thank you for your generosity!

- Bazaar Volunteers Needed

We're looking for volunteers to assist with setup on Friday afternoon and to lend a hand during the Bazaar on Saturday from 9:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m. Whether you can help for an hour or the whole event, we'd be grateful for your support in making this beloved parish tradition a success. Use the QR code to sign up.

Coffee Hour Hosts needed!

Sign up using this QR code or using the sign-up sheet in the Parish Hall

New Here? We'd Love to Connect.

Purpose Statement

We are a vibrant and authentic faith community that boldly proclaims that God is Love. Inspired by the example of Jesus' expansive and unconditional love, we open wide our doors for joyful worship and deepening of relationships as we grow together in the knowledge and love of God. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we go forth gladly to serve the world, loving others as God loves us.
