

MARKET REPORT

MAY 10, 2025

PROGRESSIVE
DISTRIBUTORS LTD

OVERVIEW

Tariff Update: President Trump has officially confirmed that tariffs under the USMCA (United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement) will not be implemented on fresh produce from Canada and Mexico. As such, shipments from these two countries will remain unaffected. However, a 10% tariff will apply to fresh produce imported from other countries, potentially impacting pricing and availability for products sourced outside of Canada and Mexico.

We will continue to see strong production out of South Florida on several items, with good quality and availability across multiple commodities with similar to slightly lighter volume being observed in Nogales and McAllen. We will see more mixed veg transitions over the coming weeks as California and South Georgia start to scratch on summer veg. Good production available on Corn and Green Bells out of Coachella this week and quality is outstanding. We should start new crop, Slicer Cucumber, in Baja next late next week. Winter Tomato volume is gradually decreasing as we move into May and the transition to summer production quickly approaches. Markets ticked up this week on Romas and Rounds due to this, fortunately we are not seeing any supply issues. Quality remains strong out of Florida as well as Mexico particularly on new crop out of Sonora, Baja and Jalisco. We expect to see Tomatoes start in California and South Georgia early June. The lighter items in supply are Green Beans, premium sized Green Bells, Pickles, Shishitos and Habanero. The offshore table grape quality and supply are stable; Mexico is forecasted to start over the next 7 to 10 days. Offshore melons are on the backside of the season and volume will steadily decrease over the coming weeks; transition to desert fruit will start in 2 weeks. Banana and Pineapple availability remains limited; shippers are asking we continue to be flexible on Pineapple sizes. Banana supply will be volatile over the next several weeks due to a labor strike in Panama impacting the global supply chain. We do not expect major shortages at this time and are keeping a very close eye on this situation. New crop available out of California on yellow/white Peaches, Cherries and Apricots, there are also Peaches available in the east out of Georgia and South Carolina; volume will gradually increase over the coming weeks. Plums are still a few weeks out. Cinco de Mayo, typically the second-largest Avocado event of the year, has felt underwhelming in 2025. Market pricing is trending downward as increased volumes from multiple countries of origin begin to dilute Mexico's dominance. California is peaking on 48s, Colombia is strong on 70s, and Peru is contributing larger fruit, providing greater size diversity in the market. This shift comes at an inopportune time for Mexico, whose key size this season—the 60 count—is currently at its highest share of the size curve since Week 8. Mexico's market share dropped to 69% last week and is expected to decline further as Peruvian volumes increase steadily, with peak arrivals anticipated in July. Industry inventory levels have held steady week-over-week. With post-Cinco demand softening, additional short-term availability is expected at the border. Prices are beginning to ease on select sizes, though overall market conditions are anticipated to remain stable as Memorial Day demand builds. A high percentage of Grade 2 fruit continues to be reported out of Mexico, which is typical for the late season. Meanwhile, California harvests remain steady, supported by favorable field conditions and excellent fruit quality. The Peruvian season is now underway, with programs available across all sizes and arrivals ramping up to meet summer promotional activity. Salinas is in full swing, and we are grateful to all the growers and the fantastic job they did during Transition. It's always a hectic time but our growers were amazing this year. We continue to see nice Spring weather. Spring does bring rain, and there is some in the forecast for next week. That could cause some increased insect pressure. We will keep an eye on that and report any issues. Lettuce supplies are looking good, and the weights all seem to be back to normal. Leafy Green, Broccoli and Cauliflower all also look good right now. The one major issue seems to be the Brussels Sprouts. You can continue to expect to see light supplies and some quality issues. Jumbos are still very limited, and sizing is leaning more towards small and medium. Growers are navigating this the best they can, but for now, the market is escalated and will stay that way until supplies improve. Endive, Escarole, Fennel. Leeks and Parsley remain escalated, with supply shortages driving the market. Bok Choy and Napa remain at the extreme trigger level. Overall production in Salinas is still steady, and we are looking forward to a great season!

TRANSPORTATION

Truck market is active with Mother's day approaching. Primary US growing regions are seeing an increase in demand for trucks for this reason, as well as warmer temps, as summer approaches. Expect a continued, upward trend of truck demand through July 4 as we navigate Memorial Day.

WEATHER

Florida: Unsettled weather in Florida will bring heavier rains later in the week. Highs will be in the mid 80s to low 90s through Thursday, cooling to the low 80s to upper 80s from Friday to Sunday. Lows will range from the mid 60s to mid 70s through the weekend.

Mexico: Warm temperatures will continue through Thursday with mostly dry conditions. Cooler temps and scattered showers are expected later in the week, with rainfall between 0.05" to 0.20". Highs will be in the mid 80s to mid 90s through Thursday, cooling to normal levels Friday to Sunday with lows in the mid 50s to mid 60s.

California: The warming trend continues today with highs in the 60s to 80s. Temperatures will range from mid 60s to mid 70s along the coast and low 80s to upper 90s inland through the week. A cooling trend will begin by Sunday.

Arizona: Scattered showers will continue in central Arizona, with dry, warmer conditions elsewhere. Highs will range from mid 80s to 112°F by Saturday, with morning lows in the upper 50s to mid 70s. Winds will remain light and northerly.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Tariff Update: President Trump has officially confirmed that tariffs under the USMCA (United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement) will not be implemented on fresh produce from Canada and Mexico. As such, shipments from these two countries will remain unaffected. However, a 10% tariff will apply to fresh produce imported from other countries, potentially impacting pricing and availability for products sourced outside of Canada and Mexico.

Avocados: ESCALATED Markets are beginning to ease as offshore volumes increase on both coasts. Supplies of 48ct and smaller fruit have improved, while larger sizes remain tight. The Normal crop has about 6–8 weeks remaining before the Flora Loca crop begins. Meanwhile, the California season is in full swing.

Bananas: ESCALATED Banana imports remain extremely light for the next 4 weeks. Overall, banana quality has been good and improving as we enter the summer grow cycle. Overall inventories are light, and we are seeing higher turns at the port and ripening centers; some of the fruit may not reach optimum color prior to arrival.

Pineapples: WATCHLIST Pineapples will remain tight and are not expected to show any improvement until May. We are suggesting flexibility in sizes to ensure stability of the supply chain. Overall quality and taste are good.

Grapes: Stable supply is available on colors and varieties. Mexico is expected to start over the next week to 10 days.

Apples: Organic Apple and Honeycrisp supplies remain extremely limited out of Washington. Pricing has risen significantly and is expected to continue increasing until the next harvest.

Pears: Domestic pears are nearly tapped out, with tight supplies expected to last until mid-July when California's Bartlett crop arrives. Washington yields are down 25–50%, and Bosc is done for the season, leaving Anjou as the main variety—though its reign is shaky. Imported Bartletts are arriving from both coasts, filling the gap with enough volume to pressure the market and soften Anjou prices.

Blueberries: ESCALATED Georgia production is increasing, along with small volumes from Florida. Mexican production remains limited. California blueberries are seeing slight increases, with supplies coming from both the Coastal California region and the Central Valley.

Raspberries: Like blackberries, this item will remain tight until West Coast production begins in late May or early June, with ongoing shortages from Central Mexico.

Strawberries: Production is expected to increase in Salinas, Watsonville, and Santa Maria with warmer temperatures this week. Oxnard is nearing the end of its season, and volumes are decreasing. While the Mother's Day demand has eased, there is still steady demand heading into the weekend. Markets are anticipated to adjust lower next week.

CALIFORNIA CITRUS

Oranges: Markets remain strong as the Navel season winds down, expected to wrap up in June. Small fruit will stay limited through the end of the season. Suppliers are closely monitoring remaining Navel volumes to manage contracts while aiming to delay Valencia shipments to maintain supply through fall. Valencia harvest is expected to begin in early June.

Lemons: Markets are firming up across the board as recent rain events have helped fruit size up. 140ct and smaller sizes are tightening, with small fruit expected to remain limited until District 2 increases volume around June. District 1 (San Joaquin Valley) remains the primary growing region, while District 2 (Ventura County/Oxnard) is contributing minimal volume.

Imports/Specialities: Blood Oranges are finishing for the season. Cara's will be finishing in about a month. California Mandarins, and Grapefruit are in good supply with very good quality.

Limes: ESCALATED Available supplies remain light this week and are expected to stay limited into next week.

STONEFRUIT

Pomegranate: Limited availability.

Asian Pears: Lighter volume, good supply on larger sizes.

Cherries: Limited Supply Available.

Tree Fruit: Offshore Peaches, Plums and Nectarines in limited supply.

Kiwi Fruit: Supplies fair out of California as well as offshore landing on the east coast.

Quince: Limited supply available this week.

CALIFORNIA LETTUCE

Iceberg: Blood Oranges are still being packed but will be finishing for the season this month. Sizing is running small. Cara's are also available and will be finishing this month as well. California Mandarins are in good supply with very good quality. California Grapefruit is available with light supplies on Fancy grade; choice grade is available.

Romaine & Romaine Hearts: Romaine and Romaine heart quality and supplies are good. There have been some reports of fringe burns and light cupping. Insect pressure could become an issue as we get into Spring weather.

Green Leaf & Red Leaf: Quality and supplies look good.

EASTERN AND WESTERN VEGETABLES

Green Bell Pepper: Seeing short supply in Nogales, particularly on large sizes. Coachella is scratching this week. South Florida is still seeing higher prices on premium sizing while choice fruit is plentiful; we should transition to South Georgia around the 10th of May.

Color Bell Pepper: Market is firm. Still hit or miss out east with Georgia still 2 weeks out from first harvest. Out west Nogales is winding down with better #1 grade quality fruit out of California. New crop peaking on XL/Jumbo sizes out of the CA desert.

Eggplant: Lighter domestic supply and quality is mixed. Good supply and excellent quality out of Mexico this week.

Slicer Cucumber: Lighter supply crossing through Nogales and McAllen as well as Honduras. We are seeing short supply, particularly on selects and supers. Quality is good and Markets were firmer this week due to transition; we expect to see better volume in two weeks. South Georgia is expected to start May 10th.

Zucchini & Yellow Squash: Good volume and quality available shipping from all locations on Italian and Yellow from Mexico and Florida. Georgia should ramp up early next week and California is still a few weeks out.

English Cucumber: Good supply available this week crossing from Mexico. Quality on new crop out of Mexico was good.

Green Beans: ESCALATED Very light supply going into the Easter Holiday out of Mexico as well as Florida as seasonal crops wind down. We will see variances in quality out of the east as growers pick from blocks that were impacted by weather earlier this year in the south. Quality and volume should improve over the next 2-3 weeks once transition gets underway to Coachella and South Georgia.

MELONS

Stronger retail demand and delayed vessels have quickly shortened the cantaloupe market, pushing FOB pricing higher this week. We do expect transition from our offshore program to the desert May 19th.

Cantaloupe: Quality is excellent and fruit shelf life is strong with extended shelf life and high shell color.

Honeydew: Honeydew production will drop off this week with sizing still strong leaning to 5s-5Js; 6ct has been extremely limited. We are seeing a bit more scars, but overall quality has been solid. Brix levels are mostly in the 12-14% range. We may see a bit more Mexican fruit available in the market.

Watermelon: Watermelon supplies are lighter, and demand is strong out of Mexico and Florida. Smaller sizes will remain tight, and new fields are producing mostly larger fruit. Prices are expected to stay strong on binds and cartons. There are some deals available on 11ct minis.

MIXED VEGETABLE

Tariff Update: President Trump has officially confirmed that tariffs under the USMCA (United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement) will not be implemented on fresh produce from Canada and Mexico. As such, shipments from these two countries will remain unaffected. However, a 10% tariff will apply to fresh produce imported from other countries, potentially impacting pricing and availability for products sourced outside of Canada and Mexico.

Artichokes: Supplies and Quality are both good.

Arugula: ESCALATED The heat caused some issues with arugula and we are seeing lighter supplies. Growers are holding to averages.

Asparagus: WATCHLIST Asparagus supplies have improved with increased volume from Peru, and a complete transition to Peruvian production is expected by mid-May. Domestic harvesting has also begun in Washington, with Michigan anticipated to start mid-month. Market pricing is trending downward heading into next week, and quality remains strong. However, white asparagus volume out of Peru is beginning to decline due to seasonal shifts and ongoing field transitions.

Broccoli/Broccoli Crowns: Quality and supplies are steady.

Broccolini and Sweet Baby Broccoli: Quality and supplies are good.

Brussels Sprouts: EXTREME Quality and supplies continue to be an issue with the majority of growers right now. Growers are covering 10-week averages. Seeder and sizing lean towards medium and smalls. Jumbos are very limited. The market is still at an extreme level.

Carrots: (JUMBOS, MEDIUMS, AND CELLOS) The Desert growing regions have started with good supplies and very good quality. Expect steady supplies through the end of the desert season which will run into late April or early May.

Cauliflower: Quality and supplies are good.

Celery: WATCHLIST Quality and supplies are ample.

Cilantro: ESCALATED The market is active and supplies are very tight. High demand has continued. Growers should be able to cover normal volumes.

Corn: Excellent supply out of Coachella and Brawley has started while volume remains steady out of Florida. Mexico is just about done for the season. Domestic quality is good.

Fennel: EXTREME The fields are seeing lower yields and therefore there is a shortage in supply. Pricing will stay escalated until supplies improve.

Garlic: California Garlic is showing very good quality with lighter supplies. Demand is good.

Ginger: Supplies and market are steady.

Green Cabbage: Supplies and quality look good.

Green Onions: WATCHLIST Supplies and quality look good but there have been some initial reports of light supplies.

Kale (Green): Supplies have improved, and quality is good.

Mushrooms: Promotable volume available and quality is good.

Napa Cabbage: ESCALATED Quality and supplies are improving.

Parsley (Curly, Italian): ESCALATED Supplies and quality look good.

Rapini: Quality is good, but supply continues to be light. The market is strong and therefore the supplies will continue to be light.

Red Cabbage: WATCHLIST Quality is good, but supplies are still light with some growers. The market remains very active.

Snow and Sugar Snap Peas: Snow pea volume out of Guatemala remains low due to adverse weather, and sugar snap supplies are also declining for the same reason. These limited volumes are expected to persist for the next 2–3 weeks. Peru is anticipated to begin shipping both snow and sugar snap peas within that same timeframe. In Mexico, production of both snow peas and sugar snaps continues at a steady pace.

Spinach: Supplies and quality are good.

Spring Mix: ESCALATED Supplies and quality are still limited but are improving

ONIONS

The onion market is not expected to react much until the Northwest is entirely out of the picture. At this point, we do not anticipate that it would take place until May. Even then, there may still be some leftover product floating around in that region. Texas onions are just getting going and they are expected to have a big crop. Additionally, Southern California will start in about 4 weeks, and they also are expected to have a lot of product. So, in the first 2 months of Q2 (April/May) there is not presently a lot of optimism. However, June is a bit of a wildcard. At that point, Texas is done, the Northwest is done, Southern Cal will be mostly finished, and we will be exclusively into New Mexico and Central California at that time. It is basically a fresh start during that time, so the market has as good of a chance of improving as it does staying stagnant.

POTATOES

The market remains stable, though carton production is starting to decline. With Norkotahs expected to phase out over the next 3–4 weeks, supply will shift solely to Burbanks, leading to a notable drop in production. As production decreases, we anticipate some market increases. However, if demand increases, the market could strengthen significantly, though that remains uncertain. Planting for the upcoming season will take place throughout April, with acreage expected to be similar to the current year. Given the depressed market conditions this season, there is some concern about similar supply levels next year, particularly if yields remain consistent.

TOMATOES

Round and Roma Tomatoes: Florida is peaking on production of rounds and Romas. Quality is outstanding.

Snacking Tomatoes (Cherry, Grape, and Medley): Stable supply available and quality is outstanding.
