The North Orange County Community College District (NOCCCD) is proud to host the District-wide Student Equity Symposium. The 2019 NOCCCD Student Equity Symposium aims to bring together local voices on student equity to engage students, faculty and staff in expanding the equity narrative. Participants will hear from influential voices, equity plan ideas, participate in insightful discussions as well as engage with their peers in a collaborative effort to further community building and advance equity mindedness in our institutions.
