FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The main themes of today's readings are peace and humility. The first reading is from the Book of the Prophet Zechariah, which dates to approximately 520 BC.

The Israelites had just returned from the Babylonian Captivity. It was a period of rebuilding, not just the city of Jerusalem, but also the temple. The Book of Zechariah is divided into two parts and some biblical scholars believe even three parts. The first 8 chapters are the actual oracles of Zechariah. The remaining chapters (9 -14) were written much later and are known as Deutero Zechariah. It was most probably written during the period after Alexander the Great conquered Judah in 333 BC. Deutero is the Greek word for second. This reading is from chapter 9 (Deutero Zechariah), which describes the restoration under the Messiah. In the verses preceding this oracle, the Lord invades the lands around Judah, which frees Judah. Since the return from Babylon, Judah had been ruled by many different nations with the Greeks as the most recent. Therefore this was good news to a war weary people. There had been no king of Israel since the Babylonian Captivity. However this king was not like the kings of old. This king, the Messiah, did not ride in a chariot brandishing a sword representing war and conquest. Instead this king rode on an ass and would be a man of peace and humility. He would destroy the symbols of war and "proclaim peace to the nations". Note that both Matthew and John use this reading in their Palm Sunday narratives. The Gospel reading from Matthew reinforces today's themes. This passage is divided into two parts. The first part (verses 25 - 27) also appears in Luke's Gospel with very minor changes and comes from a biblical reference known as "Q". "Q" was a book of Jesus sayings similar to the Gospel of Thomas. This particular section is very different from the synoptic gospels of Matthew and Luke but is very similar to the discourses and prayers in John's Gospel. The second section (verses 29 - 30) is unique only to Matthew. Jesus preached mainly to the peasants. The Pharisees and the Scribes imposed 613 commandments on the people. If they were to please God, they had to observe all these commandments. It was impossible! Those commandments were the yoke in this reading. In this context a yoke describes those things that control a person's life and the Pharisees controlled the people via these commandments. Jesus' way was different - "Come to me all you who are labored and are burdened and I will give you rest" and "my yoke is easy, and my burden light". That is why Jesus' message was so popular with the peasants and why it was so unpopular with the Pharisees and Scribes. Also, unlike the Pharisees and the Scribes, Jesus was "meek and humble of heart".

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK

Sunday: Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: St. Maria Goretti
Thursday: St. Augustine Zhao Rong and Companions
Saturday: St. Benedict

SAINT MARIA GORETTI (1890-1902)

July 6

Does anything match a mother's pride in her children? First Communions, confirmations, graduations, weddings: how these delight a mother's heart! Imagine, then, Assunta Goretti, the only mother ever to attend her child's canonization! In poverty-stricken rural Italy, widowed Assunta tended fields for the Serenelli family, whose eighteen-year-old son, Alessandro, propositioned her barely twelve-year-old Maria; then, when she resisted, crying, "It is a sin! God forbids it!" he stabbed her fourteen times. As she lay dying, Maria assured the attending priest, "Yes, I forgive Alessandro! I want him to be in Paradise with me someday." Imprisoned, unrepentant, Alessandro changed after dreaming that a radiant Maria had offered him fourteen lilies. "I've kept my promise," she smiled. "You'll be here with me someday." Upon release, he rushed to beg Assunta's forgiveness. "Jesus has forgiven you," she replied, "my Maria, too. How can I refuse?" Next morning, mother and murderer walked arm in arm to church and knelt side by side for Communion.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1769 los misioneros franciscanos establecieron la primera misión en lo que hoy es la ciudad de San Diego, California. Bajo la dirección de fray Junípero Serra, los hermanos menores pudieron establecer otras ocho misiones, incluyendo la ciudad de San Francisco, en 1776. Junípero o José Miguel Serra, fue hijo de padres campesinos de la Isla de Mallorca, España. Ingresó a la Orden de los hermanos menores (franciscanos) a los dieciséis años y con el tiempo, llegó a ser profesor de filosofía, pero su verdadero deseo era ser misionero en el continente americano, lo que hoy conocemos como Hemisferio Occidental. En 1749, su orden religiosa lo envió a México como administrador del Colegio Apostólico. Poco a poco se fue desprendiendo de sus cargos académicos para establecer misiones entre los indígenas. Aunque algunos afirman lo contrario, Junípero fue arduo defensor de los nativos. En California, más de una vez tuvo problemas con los soldados españoles, debido a que éstos abusaban de los amerindios, problemas que lo llevaron a defender los derechos humanos de los nativos ante el Virrey en México. Sus esfuerzos por cristianizar los indígenas de California tuvieron como resultado más de 6000 bautizos durante sus quince años en esa región..

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
 I believe you are really here
 in the Blessed Sacrament.
 I love you more than anything in the world, and I hunger to receive you.
 But since I cannot receive
 Communion at this time,
 feed my soul at least spiritually.
 I unite myself to you now,
 as I do when I actually receive
 You in Holy Communion.
 Amen.

COMUNIÓN ESPIRITUAL

Jesús mío,
 Creo que realmente estás aquí
 en el Santísimo Sacramento.
 Te amo más que a nada en
 el mundo y tengo hambre de recibirte.
 Pero como no puedo recibir
 la Comunión en este momento, alimenta mi alma al menos espiritualmente.
 Yo me uno a ti ahora,
 como lo hago cuando realmente
 te recibo en la Sagrada Comunión.
 Amén.

DECIMOCUARTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Lecturas de hoy: Zac 9:9-10; Sal 145 (144):1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13-14; Rom 8:9, 11-13; Mt 11:25-30

NUESTRAS COMPLICADAS VIDAS

Vivimos en una época y una sociedad que nunca ha sido tan educada o tenido un nivel de vida más alto, pero nunca hemos tenido tantas deudas. Muchas personas viven por arriba de sus necesidades. Tenemos a nuestra disposición muchos recursos y aparatos que nos ahorran el tiempo, y aún así nuestras vidas son más complejas que antes. Aunque muchas personas no se dedican a trabajos manuales extremos, rara vez evitamos nuestros trabajos. Muchos están conectados a través de teléfonos y reciben constantemente llamadas, textos y correos electrónicos. Otros pasan horas en el tráfico en sus viajes diarios o acumulan millas en sus programas de viajeros frecuentes.

Pasamos horas mirando compulsivamente nuestros programas favoritos. Muchos niños están acostumbrados a estar frente a una pantalla todo el tiempo y ya no saben cómo jugar creativamente. Las estadísticas de quienes van dejando la Iglesia y de otras religiones siguen aumentando.

Si bien no hay tal cosa como “en los buenos viejos tiempos” a los que volver, había algo que decir para dormir descansadamente después de un buen día de trabajo, y para una reunión familiar alrededor de la mesa para compartir los alimentos. Para muchos, este modelo de eucarística casi nunca existe. Jesús sabía y sentía nuestros dolores, y gritaba “vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y cansados y yo les daré descanso”.

NO ES NINGUNA CIENCIA ESPACIAL

¿Cómo organizamos? ¿Reducimos? ¿Nos dedicamos de nuevo a Cristo y a nuestro llamado al Evangelio? Apúntate para ayudar en algún apostolado o ministerio, o se voluntario para ayudar en el catecismo para niños. Intégrate a un pequeño grupo de fe. Hazte voluntario en un banco de comida o en Hábitat para la Humanidad. Involúcrate personalmente o como familia. Mientras tanto, regresa a casa, comprométete a revisar un cajón cada día, y toma las cosas a la tienda de segunda cerca de tu casa o al banco de ropa más cercano. Recuerda las oraciones de los alimentos y de la noche antes de irte a dormir. Dedica un minuto para leer las Escrituras del día. Da pasos de bebé. No es ninguna ciencia espacial. Es un compromiso continuo de llevarnos a nosotros mismos como somos, y responder al llamado de Jesús a “venir”.

OUR COMPLICATED LIVES

We live in an age and a society that has never been more educated or had a higher standard of living, yet never have we carried as much debt. Many are living beyond their means. We have so many resources and time-saving devices at our hands, yet our lives are more complex than ever. While many people may not engage in extreme manual labor we rarely escape our jobs. Many are connected through phones and constantly receive calls, texts, and emails.

We spend hours binge-watching our favorite shows. Many children are accustomed to being in front of a screen all the time and no longer know how to play creatively. The statistics for those who continue to leave the Church and all forms of organized religion also continue to rise.

While there is no such thing as a “good old days” to return to, there was something to be said for sleeping soundly after putting in a good day’s work, and for a family gathering around the table for a shared meal. For many, this model for eucharist rarely exists. Jesus knows and feels our pains, and calls out, “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.”

IT’S NOT ROCKET SCIENCE

So how do we declutter? Downsize? Devote ourselves again to Christ and live out our gospel calling? Sign up for a liturgical ministry, or volunteer to help with a religion program. Join a small faith group. Volunteer at a food pantry. Become involved as an individual, or a family. Meanwhile, back at the house, remember meal and bedtime prayers. Find a minute to read the daily scriptures. Take many baby steps. It’s not rocket science. It is a continual commitment to bring ourselves as we are, and to respond to Jesus’ call to “Come.”

CELEBRATING SUNDAY FOR CATHOLIC FAMILIES (Kara O’Malley)

This weekly guide is intended to help parents engage their children with the Mass and deepen their appreciation of the richness of their faith.

HEARING THE WORD: Matthew 13:1-9
(Gospel on July 12, Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Please go to www.usccb.org to read or download the readings.

REFLECTING ON THE WORD

God is constantly scattering the seed of his Word in our lives. At different times, we might be the vulnerable path, the inhospitable rocks, the hostile thorns or the rich soil. Our openness to the Word of God changes as we go through fruitful times and barren times, experience joy and sorrow. God does not force us to hear him. But if we transform our hearts into fertile soil, he will sow his Word in us, and his Word will produce abundant fruit than we can possibly imagine.

DISCUSS WITH YOUR FAMILY:

Ask your children to recall what happened to the various seeds. Can we make our hearts into good soil where God’s love will grow? How?

CELEBRACION DOMINICAL PARA FAMILIAS CATOLICAS (Kara O’Malley)

Esta guía semanal está destinada a ayudar a los padres a involucrar a los niños con la misa y a profundizar su aprecio por la riqueza de su fe.

ESCUCHANDO LA PALABRA: Mateo 13:1-9
(12 de julio, XV Domingo Ordinario)

Visite www.usccb.org para leer o descargar las lecturas.

REFLEXIONANDO EN LA PALABRA

Dios está constantemente esparciendo la semilla de su Palabra en nuestras vidas. En diferentes momentos, podríamos ser el camino vulnerable, las rocas inhóspitas, las espinas hostiles o el suelo rico. Nuestra apertura a la Palabra de Dios cambia a medida que atravesamos tiempos fructíferos y tiempos estériles, experimentamos alegría y tristeza. Dios no nos obliga a escucharlo. Pero si transformamos nuestros corazones en tierra fértil, él sembrará su Palabra en nosotros, Y su palabra producirá un fruto más abundante de lo que podamos imaginar.

DISCUTA CON SU FAMILIA:

Pídale a sus hijos que recuerden lo que sucedió con las diversas semillas. ¿Podemos convertir nuestros corazones en buena tierra donde crecerá el amor de Dios? Cómo?

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONGood Stewardship

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light"
Matthew 11:30

When we think of being good Stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "Stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

REFLEXIONES DE RESPONSABILIDAD COMPARTIDA

"Porque mi yugo es suave, y mi carga ligera"
Mateo 11:30

Cuando pensamos en ser buenos administradores, podemos pensar que Dios nos está pidiendo demasiado cuando nos llama a compartir generosamente nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro. Sin embargo, debemos recordar que no somos "dueños" de nada, somos simplemente "administradores" de los dones que Dios nos ha dado. Todo lo que está pidiendo es que le devolvamos una pequeña porción, en agradecimiento, de lo que ya nos ha dado.
