PENTECOST SUNDAY

The first reading from Luke's Acts of the Apostles, graphically describes the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles. However, there is much more here than that. Did you know that the feast of Pentecost is a Jewish religious feast (Feast of Weeks, which was celebrated right after Passover - Exodus 34:22; Deuteronomy 16:10) that commemorates God giving Moses the Ten Commandments on Mount Sinai? On Mount Sinai, there was wind and fire just like the roaring wind and tongues of fire in Acts. In the Book of Genesis, remember what happened at the tower of Babel? Speaking in different tongues caused mass confusion and dispersion. In the story of Pentecost in Acts, speaking in different tongues had the reverse effect. It brought unification. Again, Luke is linking the old with the new. Also, on Mt. Sinai, the Law was given to the chosen few. The Holy Spirit is given to everyone, which emphasizes Luke's message of universality. Note that Luke commemorates the bestowing of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles on the Jewish Feast of Pentecost, while John commemorates it on Jesus' first appearance to the apostles on Easter Sunday. Today the Gospel reading is from John. Here we see Jesus bestowing the Holy Spirit upon the disciples by breathing on them. This occurs when Jesus first appeared to the disciples after His death and resurrection. At this appearance only ten of the disciples were present. Judas had committed suicide and Thomas was absent. Note how John goes to great pains to show that Jesus was not a ghost. His point is that Jesus is the risen Christ. It is at this point that the disciples become apostles or "those sent". The act of breathing on them references God breathing life into the first man in the book of Genesis. The last verse - "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" - is the basis for the sacrament of Reconciliation as defined by the Council of Trent (1545 AD - 1563 AD). The apostles are then sent out to continue the work of redemption in the guiding power of the Holy Spirit. Note the contrasts between the bestowing of the Holy Spirit in the first reading and in the Gospel reading. In the first reading, there is noise and wind and fire; in the Gospel reading, there is peaceful and quiet breathing. In the first reading, the event takes place 50 days after the Resurrection; in the Gospel reading, it takes place on Easter Sunday. Pentecost marks the end of Easter Time. Next week we resume Ordinary Time.

SAN CARLOS LWANGA Y COMPAÑEROS

(AÑO 1886) 3 DE JUNIO

También son conocidos como los mártires de Uganda, África Central, que había recibido a los “padres blancos” (misioneros), pero que después, por órdenes del rey Mwanga fueron expulsados. Al darse cuenta de que algunos de sus cortesanos “eran gente que rezaba”, los llamó a todos y les pidió que se hicieran a un lado “los que rezan” es decir, quienes eran cristianos. Les preguntó “si rezaban” y respondieron: “Sí, señor mío, hasta la muerte”, la noche anterior habían pasado en oración y Carlos Lwanga, catequista, estaba con ellos. Pero eso estaba prohibido pues era un desafío a la religión del rey, por tal motivo ordenó que los llevaran a Namugongo en donde algunos de ellos fueron decapitados y otros atados y echados al fuego. Este grupo de mártires estaba compuesto por niños y jóvenes. El testimonio heroico de su sufrimiento dio un fuerte impulso al cristianismo, de tal suerte que cuando los misioneros regresaron, ya había casi mil catecúmenos esperándolos para ser bautizados. Fueron martirizados en 1886 y canonizados en 1964 por el Papa Pablo VI. — Miguel Arias, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Pentecost Sunday

When we put the Gospel in its context, John 20 starts with the empty tomb and the appearance to Mary Magdalene. Still, the disciples were scared and confused. They gathered together to regroup. They locked the door for fear of the Jews, whom they had just experienced as an angry mob, whom they had just seen crucify their friend Jesus. These disciples were afraid of the Jews, but they may also have been feeling guilty and confused for running away from Jesus at the cross, for hiding, for trying to protect themselves.

Now the risen Jesus comes to them saying, "Peace be with you," showing them his wounds, and greeting them again. Jesus is modeling something very powerful here. Most of us hate to be vulnerable. We try to hide our wounds and scars. We try to protect ourselves and show everybody that we have it together. In order to be healed, to receive the Spirit, to move on in our lives, we need to unlock our internal doors. We need to let Jesus into our house, into our hearts, and into those darkened corners of ourselves. It might be frightening. It might mean going to the sacrament of reconciliation or speaking with a spiritual director or even with a therapist.

RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT

We often worry about how others will respond if we are less than perfect. Jesus knew the disciples were flawed humans. He did not get angry or give them a guilt trip. He said, "Peace be with you." He was gentle. Jesus gave them the gift of new life through a simple gesture. He breathed the Spirit into them. This is reminiscent of Genesis, when God breathed life into Adam, and Ezekiel, when God breathed life back into the dry bones. Jesus concluded with, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." So not only did Jesus entrust them with this role, this power, he first showed them how it is done. How do we in turn breathe life into our families and friends? Our coworkers? The stranger we meet?

Domingo de Pentecostés

Cuando ponemos el Evangelio en su contexto, Juan 20 empieza con el sepulcro vacío y la aparición a María Magdalena. Aún así, los discípulos estaban asustados y confundidos. Se reunieron para reagruparse. Cerraron la puerta con llave por miedo a los judíos, a quienes habían vistos furiosos en una turba, quienes acababan de crucificar a su amigo Jesús. Estos discípulos tenían miedo de los judíos, pero también podían haberse sentido culpables y confundidos por haber huido de Jesús en la cruz, por esconderse, por tratar de protegerse ellos mismos.

Ahora Jesús resucitado viene hacia ellos diciéndoles: "la paz sea con ustedes", mostrándoles sus cicatrices, y saludándolos una vez más. Jesús está moldeando algo muy poderoso aquí. Muchos de nosotros odiamos ser vulnerables. Intentamos esconder nuestras heridas y cicatrices. Intentamos protegernos y mostramos a todos que todo está bien. Para poder ser sanados, para recibir al Espíritu, para seguir con nuestras vidas, necesitamos abrir nuestras puertas interiores. Necesitamos dejar a Jesús entrar a nuestra casa, a nuestros corazones, y en aquellas esquinas oscuras de nosotros. Podría ser aterrador. Podría significar ir al Sacramento de la Reconciliación o hablar con un director espiritual o incluso con un terapeuta.

RECIBIR AL ESPÍRITU SANTO

Frecuentemente nos preocupamos por cómo los demás responderán si no somos perfectos. Jesús sabía que los discípulos eran humanos con defectos. Él no se enojó ni los hizo sentir culpables. Él dijo: "la paz sea con ustedes". Fue gentil. Jesús les dio el don de la vida nueva por medio de un gesto simple. Él soplo en ellos el Espíritu Santo. Esto es una reminiscencia del Génesis, cuando Dios soplo vida en Adán; y Ezequiel, cuando Dios volvió a soplar vida en los huesos secos. Jesús concluyó con: "a quienes les perdonen los pecados, les serán perdonados; y a quienes se los retengan, les serán retenidos". Así que no sólo les confió Jesús este papel, este poder, sino que primero les mostró cómo se hace. ¿Cómo nosotros insuflamos vida a nuestras familias y amigos? ¿A nuestros compañeros de trabajo? ¿Al extranjero que encontramos?

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

*Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And you will renew the face of the earth.
Lord, by the light of the Holy Spirit
you have taught the hearts of your faithful.
In the same Spirit
help us to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

ORACIÓN AL ESPÍRITU SANTO

Ven, Espíritu Santo, llena los corazones de tus fieles.
Y enciende en ellos el fuego de tu amor.
Envía tu Espíritu y serán creados.

has enseñado los corazones de tus fieles.
En el mismo espíritu
ayúdanos a saborear lo que es correcto
y siempre regocíjate en tu consuelo.
Te lo pedimos por Cristo nuestro Señor.
Amén.

CELEBRATING SUNDAY FOR CATHOLIC FAMILIES (Kara O'Malley)

This weekly guide is intended to help parents engage their children with the Mass and deepen their appreciation of the richness of their faith.

HEARING THE WORD: John 3:16-18 (Gospel on June 7, Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity)

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

REFLECTING ON THE WORD

The Catechism of the Catholic Church calls the doctrine of the Trinity "the central mystery of the Christian faith". The Trinity is the mystery of God's very identity - God is Love. Through the revelation of the Trinity, we learn that the inner life of God is communion. So let us contemplate the mystery of ourselves that we have been made, formed and destined for love.

DISCUSS WITH YOUR FAMILY:

Which Person of the Holy Trinity do you relate to best: God the Father, Jesus Christ (God's Son), or the Holy Spirit? What does it mean to say that God is Love? What does that mean for your life?

LIVING THE WORD

Find a selection of depictions of the Holy Trinity in fine art throughout the ages (icons, painting, sculpture) and share them with your family. Discuss what each depiction tells us about the Trinity. For prayer this day, begin by crossing yourselves (using holy water if you have it) and praying that we might live in God's love. Close your family prayer by praying or listening to the Te Deum, the beautiful chant of praise and thanksgiving to the Triune God.

CELEBRACION DOMINICAL PARA FAMILIAS CATOLICAS (Kara O'Malley)

Esta guía semanal está destinada a ayudar a los padres a involucrar a los niños con la misa y a profundizar su aprecio por la riqueza de su fe.

ESCUCHANDO LA PALABRA: Juan 3:16-18 (7 de junio, solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad)

"Tanto amó Dios al mundo, que le entregó a su Hijo único, para que todo el que crea en él no perezca, sino que tenga la vida eterna. Porque Dios no envió a su Hijo para condenar al mundo, sino para que el mundo se salvara por él. El que cree en él no será condenado; pero el que no cree ya está condenado, por no haber creído en el Hijo único de Dios".

REFLEXIONANDO EN LA PALABRA

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica llama a la doctrina de la Trinidad "el misterio central de la fe cristiana". La Trinidad es el misterio de la identidad de Dios: Dios es amor. A través de la revelación de la Trinidad, aprendemos que la vida interior de Dios es la comunión. Entonces, contemplemos el misterio de nosotros mismos que hemos sido creados, formados y destinados al amor.

DISCUTA CON SU FAMILIA:

¿Con qué persona de la Santísima Trinidad te relacionas mejor: Dios el Padre, Jesucristo (el Hijo de Dios) o el Espíritu Santo? ¿Qué significa decir que Dios es amor? ¿Qué significa eso para tu vida?

VIVIENDO LA PALABRA

Encuentre una selección de representaciones de la Santísima Trinidad en las bellas artes de todas las épocas (íconos, pintura, escultura) y compártalas con su familia. Discuta lo que cada representación nos dice acerca de la Trinidad. Para orar este día, comience cruzándose (usando agua bendita si la tiene) y orando para que podamos vivir en el amor de Dios. Cierre su oración familiar orando o escuchando el Te Deum, el hermoso canto de alabanza y acción de gracias al Dios Triuno.
