

Dear Addiction,

I never thought you were a big deal until you changed my life forever. Because of you, I don't know when I will hear from or talk to my sister again. Or even if I will again. Because of you, I will always be in search for a real mother figure. And my life will never be the same as it was before you stepped in and changed EVERYTHING.

- Me