

HPED Welcomes ecomaids of Mainline

HPED is pleased to welcome ecomaids of MainLine to 737 West Chester Pike in Havertown. Owners Jermaine Rhoden and Tim Stephens had opened their business in January, and plan to have an open house at Tuscany Cafe in September for residents and local companion business owners.

Jermaine Rhoden grew up in Ardmore, PA where he attended Bala Cynwyd Middle school and Episcopal Academy. Jermaine placed third in the Patriot League high jump as a sophomore and is the 8th all-time at Lafayette College where he studied biology and English. Jermaine was previously a manager at the Bala Golf Club, where he met his colleague Tim.

Tim Stephens is an author, Leeds United and lives locally. He has a MA in Journalism and Communications from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. Tim grew up in England and has lived in Philadelphia for the past four years. Tim is a frequent golfer and stares fondly from the office window at the Llanerch course.

"The most exciting thing about ecomaids is that it has allowed us to integrate ourselves further in the community," explains Jermaine. "Whether that's collaborating with other businesses, visiting the Tuscany Café or taking a walk through the neighborhood. This is a great central location for us and a great community of people."

"We are equally committed to quality eco-friendly cleaning and customer service," explains Jermaine. "Our products have no dyes, fragrances or chemicals which are toxic to humans or pets."

ecomaid's of the Main Line offers residential and commercial cleaning services, and assists apartment managers with turnover of rental homes between leases.

Their office is on West Chester Pike and they can be reached at 610-310-3778, em30@ecomaid.com.
