House Turnovers

Anytime between 7:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.

Ecumenical Partnership for Housing is looking for those who want to help with the homeless community in our area and make an impact. EPH houses 36 families at a time facing homelessness within Brown County. In order to do so, they rely on volunteers to help them get their homes move-in ready for the families. During the 'turnover' process, there will be dusting, sweeping, vacuuming, mopping, cleaning dishes, cleaning toys, etc. They also re-stock the home and get it prepared for the family to move in. Volunteers under age 18 must be accompanied by an adult. Contact Lacy Hansen at 920-655-6323 or lacyh@ephgb.org.

Volunteer Ombudsmen

Flexible daily shifts between 8:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m.

The Board on Aging and Long Term Care Volunteer Ombudsman Program would like volunteer ombudsmen ages 18 and older who will promote and advocate for the rights of individuals living in nursing homes. They make unannounced visits to designated facilities to interact with residents. They observe general conditions of the facility, talk with the residents about their rights, and work with residents to communicate concerns and complaints by providing support and empowerment. Volunteer ombudsmen assist residents by being their voice. Training and ongoing support is provided. If you'd like to improve the lives of the elderly, they would love to meet you. Contact Andie Grassl at 608-246-7023 or andrea.grassl@wisconsin.gov.

Education Volunteers

Various shifts through October, weekdays and occasional weekends

Bereavement Callers

Flexible shifts

Volunteering is the heart of hospice. Do you have a few hours a month that you could share with someone? If a rewarding volunteer opportunity is what you are looking for, this is it. Aurora at Home Hospice is looking for kind, compassionate, and social volunteers ages 18 or older to call families who lost a loved one on Aurora hospice. Bereavement callers provide support by calling just to provide a listening ear. There is no hands-on care, and you have the ability to call patients from the comfort of your own home. The bereavement call program is designed to maximize the role of the volunteer in assisting families who have lost a loved one. Training is provided. Contact Lexi Pirman at 920-627-5306 or lexi.pirman@aah.org.

Refugee Welcome Kits

Can be dropped off Monday-Thursday from 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Catholic Charities reminds you that many refugees come to the United States with next to nothing and invites volunteers to help them rebuild their lives by putting together a Welcome Kit. These kits will provide them with the essentials they need to help them build again with hope and honor. For a list of the essentials, contact Tara below or see the Volunteer Center's Facebook post from May 24. Drop off location: Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Green Bay, 1825 Riverside Dr. (Bona Hall), Green Bay. Please contact them in advance to schedule a delivery of larger items/furniture. Contact Tara Degrave at 920-272-8234 or tdegrave@qbdioc.org.

Pantry Distribution

Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, 1:45-4:00 p.m.; Wednesdays, 9:15-10:30 a.m.

The Salvation Army of Greater Green Bay needs volunteers ages 16 and older to help put food bags in shopping carts and bring the carts from the pantry to families waiting outside for pickup. Lifting (30 lbs.), bending, twisting, and standing required. Location: Salvation Army Corps, 626 Union Ct., Green Bay. Visit <https://bttr.im/57b7r> to sign up or Contact Michaela Koepp with questions at 920-593-2375 or michaela.koepp@usc.salvationarmy.org.

Friendly Visitor Volunteers

Flexible shifts

Heartland Hospice is looking for caring and compassionate individuals ages 18 and older to join their volunteer team to provide friendly visits with patients facing life-limiting illness. Friendly visitor volunteers help improve the quality of their patients' lives through social visits, reading to patients, going for walks, playing cards, looking at photo albums, and reminiscing. Heartland Hospice's volunteer opportunities offer flexible scheduling and training options close to home. Contact Amy Sadewater at 920-336-6455 or amy.sadewater@heartlandhospice.com.

Medicare Outreach Volunteers

Mostly weekdays, typically during business hours, but may include evenings; approximate time commitment is 2-3 hours per month

ADRC of Brown County seeks volunteers ages 18 and older to provide information and counseling on Medicare Parts A, B, C, and D through group presentations and individual counseling. Assist consumers in understanding Medicare-related and other benefit programs and connect them to resources. Presentations take you to various sites around Brown County. Knowledge and experience with Medicare are beneficial, but not required as training is provided. Contact Angela Van Asten at 920-448-4560 or angela.vanasten@browncountywi.gov.

Early Education Classroom Grandparents

Flexible school-day hours, minimum five hours per week

Encompass Early Education & Care is seeking volunteers ages 55 and older to be classroom grandparents, who are volunteers who make a difference in a child's life while also earning a tax-free stipend. This opportunity is available at one of seven five-star-rated Encompass centers in Brown County. The Foster Grandparent Program connects two generations, enriching seniors' lives with a sense of purpose and providing children ages infant-4 with a consistent grandparent figure who supports them in social play and classroom activities. Volunteers must meet income requirements set by AmeriCorps Seniors, the program's funding source. Contact Deb Johnson at 920-785-9710 or djohnson@encompasswi.org.

Farmers' Market on Broadway

Wednesdays through September 25; shifts through August: 2:45-5:30 p.m. (beverage tent first shift), 5:15-8:00 p.m. (beverage tent second shift), 3:00-8:00 p.m. (info booth), 12:30-3:00 p.m. (set-up crew), and 7:45-9:30 p.m. (tear-down crew)

On Broadway, Inc. would like volunteers for a variety of roles for this weekly event:

- Beverage tent - Serve and pour alcoholic beverages; requires cash- and card-handling.
- Info booth - Sit under the info booth tent and assist marketgoers, hand out maps, and help with other general information.
- Set-up crew - Assist with set-up of the market (tents, garbage cans, banners, etc.); this is outdoor work and lifting is required.
- Tear-down crew - Assist with clean-up of the market (garbage, tents, banners, etc.); this is outdoor work and lifting is required.

Baseball Game Assistants

Various shifts before and during home games

Blue Ribbons Baseball would like volunteers to assist in several areas: field prep (about three hours before game time), help with batting practice, concessions, grilling, ticketing, on-field entertainment, and more. Volunteers who are minors must be accompanied by a parent. Visit blueribbonsbaseball.com/ for dates and more information or contact Jen Leo with questions at 920-713-0673 or info@blueribbonsbaseball.com.

Side Walkers and/or Horse Leaders

Mondays, 10:30 a.m.-7:00 p.m.; Tuesdays, 11:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m.; Wednesdays, 9:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.; Thursdays, 10:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.

Exceptional Equestrians needs volunteers ages 14 and older for two roles:

- Horse leaders control the equine during therapy and adaptive riding sessions and, with direction from the therapist or instructor, are responsible for maintaining a safe and effective session. Horse leaders must have previous horse experience through riding lessons, owning or leasing a horse, or other comparable experiences. Duties include leading the equine during sessions, grooming, tacking and untacking, bringing in or turning out horses, basic barn chores, and other duties as needed.
- Side walkers walk alongside the horse and rider and assist in keeping that rider safe during their session. Following direction from a therapist, side walkers may be asked to engage with their riders and assist in therapeutic activities unique to each rider. Side walkers also assist in sanitizing equipment after each session, including helmets, belts, toys, and therapy equipment.

Contact Bekah Morrow at 920-347-3174 or bmorrow@exceptionalequestrians.org.

Outreach Volunteers

Various days and times

Want to help fight fraud in the Medicare system and protect beneficiaries from being victims of scams? If so, and if you are age 50 or older, you're invited to join the Senior Medicare Patrol volunteer team. They educate Medicare beneficiaries, their families, and caregivers on how to prevent healthcare fraud and provide tips on how they can protect themselves. They do this through outreach. SMP volunteers staff booths at health fairs/senior expos/resource events or give small group presentations. You can make an important difference in your community by stepping forward and taking a stand against fraud. Contact Molly Kelly at 888-818-2611 or molly.kelly@gwaar.org.

Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, 8:00-10:00 a.m., 10:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m., or 8:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Volunteers are invited to join the horticulture team at Green Bay Botanical Garden. Don't let a lack of gardening experience hold you back. Their horticulture staff will work alongside you, making sure you are comfortable with your task and answering any questions you may have. No tools are required, just bring gardening gloves. They have successfully turned many brown thumbs green. Individuals ages 12-15 can volunteer with a parent or guardian.

Contact Kate Martin at 920-593-5686 or volunteer@gbbg.org.

Bread Run Drivers

Alternating Fridays, 6:30-8:30 a.m.

The Salvation Army of Greater Green Bay seeks volunteers ages 21 and older to pick up donated food items from various sites in the Green Bay area. Drivers would be picking up donations and loading/unloading the vehicle as needed. Volunteers must be background-checked, trained, and have a motor vehicle license/check prior to participating in this activity. Location: Salvation Army Corps, 626 Union Ct., Green Bay. Contact Michaela Koepp at 920-593-2375 or michaela.koepp@usc.salvationarmy.org.

Big Brothers Big Sisters Mentors

Various shifts

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Wisconsin is seeking retirees who want to positively impact the next generation of students. Mentors (Bigs) meet with their mentees (Littles) in two ways:

- Community-based Bigs meet a few times a month to expose their Little to community activities, go for walks in the park, or enjoy an ice cream cone together.
- Site-based Bigs meet during a Little's lunch and recess once a week at school to read, play games, or do a craft.

Bigs get to explore the world through a child's eyes, share their values with a younger generation, and enjoy being a kid again. If you enjoy the company of children and want to have fun, being a Big might be just the thing for you. Visit bbsnew.org/be-a-big to learn more or contact Keren Cotter with questions at 920-615-9306 or kerenc@bbsnew.org.

Facebook and Website Assistant

Can be done at home as time permits

Unity Resale Shoppe East

Flexible shifts

Unity, a non-profit provider of nonmedical home care, palliative care, hospice care, and grief support, is seeking fun and friendly volunteers ages 18 and older to fulfill daily operations of a new, second resale shop that will open in summer 2024 in East De Pere. Volunteers are needed to start orientation in June or July. Duties include receiving, sorting, pricing, staging, and merchandising items, along with greeting customers and cashiering. Proceeds from the
