Beautifully maintained single-story home offering bright, open living spaces and exceptional care, having been used only 4–6 weeks per year. Inside, the home features neutral finishes, abundant natural light, and a versatile layout that includes a dedicated office with double glass-door entry. The spacious primary suite offers a bay-style window nook and a well-appointed bath with dual sinks and a glass-enclosed shower. Additional bedrooms provide flexible options for guests or hobbies. Sliding doors from the kitchen dining area lead to an extended covered patio overlooking a serene, desert-scaped backyard with mature, low-maintenance landscaping. With its pristine condition, thoughtful design, and inviting indoor-outdoor flow, this home delivers comfort, efficiency, and timeless desert appeal.
