GO OVER THE EDGE FOR THE UNITED WAY OF SAGINAW COUNTY

The United Way of Saginaw County is a volunteer-directed nonprofit operated by a trained staff. The United Way connects funding to important programming in the areas of health, education, and financial stability.

On June 8th, the United Way of Saginaw County and Covenant Healthcare will be hosting Over The Edge, a fundraising event that will see rappellers scale the Covenant Mackinaw facility. In celebration of the United Way's 100th year serving the Saginaw County community, this high energy adventure will take Saginaw County out of its comfort zone to make a positive impact.
