

OHIO STATE ORGANIZATION
Of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International
Officer and Committee Training Meeting Report
July 31, 2019

Fifty-two DKG Ohio members were present at the Officer and Committee Training Meeting at the Grace United Methodist Church in Washington Court House on July 31, 2019. Following introduction of officers, chairmen, and past state presidents, DKG anecdotes were shared. President Diana Kirkpatrick summarized Society Committee responsibilities and Treasurer Diana Haskell explained DKG Ohio reimbursement policy. Leadership Chairman Lois Harkins introduced a working guide for committees to plan goals and strategies aligned to DKG purposes and to Ohio State Organization Biennium theme of Believe::Belong::Build. Committee work followed.

Second Vice-President Melodie McGee led the group in prayer for the luncheon served by the ladies of the Grace United Methodist Church. Corresponding Secretary Cindy Lawyer and Recording Secretary Ann Todd assisted with door prize presentations. Music by Brooklynn Stanley and Jocelyn Trimmer was canceled due to an adjustment in the girls' schedules. Following lunch, a thank you gift and notes of appreciation were given to the ladies preparing the meal.

Committees continued working on their biennium plans. Webmaster and Editor Eileen McNally presented an overview of the DKG Ohio website and capabilities with Google documents (G-Suites). Caution was stressed for patience with this format as it is new. Eileen stated that one advantage of the program was that documents could be stored by committee position which would allow an easier and more efficient flow of materials from one biennium to the next.

Parliamentarian Joyce Jones-Weinkam summarized Robert's Rules of Order to the group. Next, Diana Haskell gave an overview of the budget stressing the need for committees to spend at or below their allotted budget, to use "Go-to-Meeting" and to look for central locations for meetings. Questions and answers followed. One suggestion was for the listing of descriptive information in e-mail's subject line which would help members feel more confident opening an attachment. Members were also urged to use the Goggle site when contacting officers in order to help build the foundation for an efficient flow of information spanning terms.

A Recommitment Ceremony was led by First Vice-President Debby Canter. President Kirkpatrick distributed a master listing of officers and committees requesting necessary edits and asked for assistance locating additional members for committees. Lois Harkins asked the group to complete evaluation forms and return name tags. At the conclusion of the day a gift basket and individual notes of inspiration were given to President Kirkpatrick.

As there were no other concerns, the group dismissed early which allowed time for interviews for the Editor position of The Voice.

ADDENDUMS

- Lois humbly apologized for omitting the introduction of Past State President Donna Myers. She added the mistake was completely of her own making, will not repeat this error, and will make this right.
- Linda Harrison included this OSO Anecdote: "When I was chapter president, I used school themed stationery for agendas. I printed the agenda upside down."
- Past State President Donna Myers added this OSO Anecdote: "On Good Friday, 2004, Charlotte Schrider and I visited the Airport Marriott. When we arrived, we noticed the hotel was still in the midst of remodeling, especially the lobby. The convention was 3 weeks away and many, many reservations had been made. We made the transition to The Renaissance Hotel in downtown Columbus. With Charlotte's and the registrar's herculean efforts, we moved the state convention contacting EVERYONE!"
