

DAVID HARRIS RETURNS TO AREA 1!

- Dan Moore

With the coming of autumn, the New England Ringers are pleased to welcome David Harris, Artistic Director of the Raleigh Ringers, back to Rhode Island.

For many years, David has presented workshops, conducted Spring Rings and other events in Area 1. He returns this October as the massed conductor for OKTOBELLFEST, an all Area1 event sponsored by the New England Ringers.

During this multi-day event, rehearsals with Mr. Harris will be held at the Hampton Inn, Pawtucket RI (easy access from I-95); the Sunday concert will be at the 'Barn', a facility of Guild Brewers, which is a very short distance from the Inn.

The registration fee includes all meals, double occupancy at the Hampton Inn, all rehearsals and social events, and a souvenir event shirt.

The dates are October 15 - 17. Ringers of all abilities are welcome. There are 7 massed selections which will be included in the final concert along with solo offerings from participating choirs and individuals.

Let's make David feel welcome!!

Register now in order to reserve your ringing space and overnight accommodations. Registration closes very soon!!

Click on this link for the schedule, information about the repertoire, the venue, and registration:
<https://sites.google.com/view/oktobellfest/home>

