

National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) Florida Resources and Status of How Florida's Members of Congress Are Doing In Their Support of NEA March 2017

1. Which organizations in Florida have received NEA grants over the last three years -- 2014 through 2017? Go here.
2. How did Florida DCA use its annual NEA State Partnership Block FY 2016 grant? Go here.
3. Do a search to see which organizations in your city have received NEA grants for a specific year?
4. Speeches on U.S. House floor in support of NEA.
5. 2017 NEA Guide
6. Use Americans for the Arts Mobilization Center -- access here.

How are Florida Members of Congress doing in their support of NEA:

1. List of all by Washington, DC, office buildings; links to their websites; if they are members of the Congressional Arts or Cultural Caucuses, and if they signed the "Dear Colleague" letter in the Senate or the House in support of the NEA.
2. Members of Congress are back in their districts until April 25. Now is a good time to reach out to them to thank them if they are members of the Congressional Arts Caucus or STEAM Caucus in the U.S. House and if they signed the "Dear Colleague" Letter of support for the NEA. Go here to check status and access their websites.

If your U.S. Member of Congress is not a member of the U.S. Congressional Arts OR STEAM Caucus AND Florida's U.S. Senate members are not members of the Senate Cultural Caucus, please quickly send them an email to request they join:

Form to join the U.S. House Congressional Arts Caucus

Form to join the U.S. House STEAM Caucus

Form to join the U.S. Senate Cultural Caucus

3. Excel file of Florida members of Congress, along with their Twitter handles and names and emails of their arts staffers.

Check out the 2016 Congressional Arts Report Card to see how Florida's members of Congress acted on key issues.