

Jana Alayra Concert Coming to St. Serra on Tuesday, March 28

We are excited to announce that Jana Alayra, Christian music singer and performer, will be here to perform for our students in Grades Preschool through Three on Tuesday, March 28, from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m., in the Student Activity Center. Jana is a popular Christian children's music singer. She has been the worship leader for the MOPS Int'l Regional Conferences and the National Convention. She is a frequent speaker/singer at women's conferences, retreats, banquets, and conventions.

Jana's music may be heard on various Christian radio stations across the country and is available in Christian bookstores and online. If you are interested in purchasing any of Jana's merchandise, please go to Jana's website at janaalayra.com.

The concert will be open to any St. Serra parents who wish to attend. If your child attends the M/W/F Preschool class, you are welcome to bring your child and keep your child with you to experience the concert. A special section in the SAC will be reserved for parents and their preschoolers.
