4th Grade Weekly Information

FROM THE TEACHERS:

Social Studies Project: In Social Studies class, students will become an entrepreneur and design their own style of jeans. They will also create an advertisement for their jeans. This ties into our California history as we have been learning about the amazing entrepreneurs from the Gold Rush era. We have read about Levi Strauss, Domenico Ghirardeli, Eliza Steen Johnson, Lucy Stoddard Wakefield and Luzena Stanley Wilson in class. Your student may ask you to send in materials from home to help them with their project. This is a fun and creative way for students to demonstrate their understanding of what an entrepreneur does.

Virtual Field Trip: The fourth grade classes will be going on a Virtual Field trip next week to Irvine Park to experience the Gold Rush, traveling to California and life in the 1850's. The date of the Virtual Field trip will be announced in class.
