

Almsgiving - Helping Those in Need Next Thursday, March 4

A Red, White and Blue Non-uniform Day to Support Our Fellow Catholics in Texas

As most of us are well aware, recently there has been a lot of devastation caused by severe weather hitting across most of the United States. The state of Texas was hit extremely hard because for them the weather was very unusual. To help provide some financial help to the Catholic schools in the Diocese of Galveston-Houston, we are going to hold a Red, White and Blue Fundraiser Day next week, Thursday, March 4.

Any student or staff member who brings in a minimum of $1.00 may wear Red, White and Blue non-uniform dress on this day. Jeans are allowed. All other non-uniform dress guidelines, as listed in the Parent Student Handbook, are to be followed. All proceeds will be forwarded to the Diocese of Galveston-Houston for their distribution to a school(s) in most need within their diocese. We are hoping our St. Serra School community will come together as one to help our fellow Americans for Almsgiving during this Lenten season. We ask for continued prayers as well, for the healing of all those who are suffering, whether from severe weather or the COVID-19 pandemic. Thank you!
