Lent at St. Kilian Church

Over the past month the number of people infected with COVID-19 has declined (in California the decline has been from 60,000 cases to 10,000 in one month, hospitalizations are down almost 30% in two weeks and ICU admissions are down 21.5%). Although we must remain vigilant, Bishop Vann – aware of the Supreme Court decisions rendered last weekend – is permitting a partial resumption of indoor worship in our diocese.

Limited to 25% of capacity, here is our new schedule!

Distribution of ashes will be available following TWO methods — contact or contactless.

First, ashes will be administered in the "normal" fashion on the forehead in the sign of the Cross. Once all people have received in this way, those wishing to have ashes "sprinkled" on the top of their head with no contact, will have the opportunity to receive the ashes.

We mailed a "little black book" to active registered parishioners that can be your "companion for Lent!" Come by the Parish Office if you still need one.

Just find six minutes of quiet time each day to read timely thoughts and quotes, explanations and reflections from the Sunday gospel readings.
