

The National Day of Rememberance and Action on Violence Against Women is a day commemorated in Canada each December 6th, the anniversary of the 1989 Montreal Massacre, when 14 female students were singled out for their gender and murdered.

North York Women's Centre invites you to join us on Friday December 4th, 3-4pm on Zoom to remember these 14 women, the missing and murdered Indigenous women, and all others who have faced violence in their lives because they were women.

Everyone is Welcomed!
