

FAITH, MUSIC, MASS, ACTION: WHAT'S THE CONNECTION?

Fr. Michael S. Driscoll, Speaker

This workshop looks at the role of music, as well as the other sacred arts, in forming our Christian beliefs. How do the liturgical arts impart that deep-felt knowledge of head and heart and faith, the knowledge that nurtures whole human persons and inspires a knowing from the inside out?

Michael S. Driscoll is a priest of the diocese of Helena, Montana. Ordained in 1977, he has spent the majority of his years in the priesthood teaching - first at Carroll College, the diocesan college in Helena, from 1981 - 1994, and then at the University of Notre Dame since 1994 to the present. He pursued his graduate studies, first in Rome at the Gregorian University, then at Sant Anselmo, and his doctorates at the University of Paris-Sorbonne and the Institut Catholique. His specialization is in the area of sacramental theology and liturgy.

He is an active member of several professional groups, having served in the leadership of each: North American Academy of Liturgy (NAAL), the Societas Liturgica, and the Catholic Academy of Liturgy (CAL). He is the founding director of the Masters program in Sacred Music (MSM) and the interdisciplinary Minor in Liturgical Music Ministry at Notre Dame since 2005.

Fr. Driscoll's writings on the liturgy have brought him into the area of social justice as the lived experience of faith flowing from the Eucharist, as in seen in Sacraments and Justice (Liturgical Press, 2014). He is very interested in making the connection between liturgy and life, between the Eucharist and ethics.
