WORLD'S END is a Fountaine Pajot Galathea 65 and a boat to fall in love with. The absolute best-seller in our fleet is not without reason the most requested vessel for repeat customers. Having undergone a total refit in 2020 she looks more beautiful than ever. Its stylish design, decorated with colorful cushions puts you in a playful, though relaxed mood throughout your journey. This sailing yacht catamaran was built to highest industry standards to guarantee your safety and comfort under all circumstances. The moment you set your foot on board, you will be overwhelmed by the luxurious and translucent interior, by the comfortable and spacious cabins, the relaxing atmosphere of the deck areas, the intriguing variety of water toys and most of all the amazing service of the WORLD'S END crew, who will make you feel extravagantly spoiled in every way.

Accommodating up to 10 guests, in one King size cabin, three Queen size cabins and one twin cabin, all equipped with private bathroom facilities, it is perfectly suitable for sublime vacations with your family or friends. The aft deck will make you feel like sitting on the private terrace of your summer bungalow, enjoying the tranquility and comfort, either having a deliciously prepared meal, created according to your desires by your Chef with a vast variety of Mediterranean flavors, either simply relaxing and blending in with the amazing environment your Captain will have taken you to.

WORLD'S END will take you on a journey that will not easily be forgotten. The itinerary, activities and the menu will be based on your input and preferences to guarantee you and your guests will have a unique experience to cherish long after.
