

WELCOME BACK TO DAY TRIPS!!!

LEGENDARY DEKOVEN CENTER

A Self-Driving Tour (tour starts at 11:00)

Tuesday, October 28, 2025

Join us on this self-driving tour of Racine's Historic DeKoven Center. We will see the nationally recognized architectural buildings, wonderful gardens, wooded areas and beautiful views of Lake Michigan. Built in the 1850's, basically used as a learning institution (with General Billy Mitchel as a graduate). These buildings are still being used today. Maybe you've been to a wedding at St. John's Chapel or attended the Starving Artist Fair.

Our tour will include the 8 buildings (each has 6 steps or less, with ramp accessibility available), FOLLOWED by lunch in Taylor Hall

We will meet at the Center with the tour beginning at 11:00 am.

LUNCH to follow at Taylor Hall, which includes:

SOUP, SALAD, SANDWICH, DESSERT and BEVERAGE

(They can accommodate food allergies or restrictions

PLEASE let us know beforehand.)

DIRECTIONS to DeKoven Center, 2000 Wisconsin Ave, Racine, WI.
