

You Be the Judge

In this class, we will explore the limits of the President's constitutional powers, considering the question, under what condition may the President constitutionally deploy the National Guard? For the first part of the session, we'll review some recent litigation on this question, then break into groups to deliberate on and generate our own legal judgement.

Tuesday, November 11, 2025

10:00 am – 12:00 pm

Hybrid class: Online through Yuja and In-person at Tallent Hall, Room 182

About our Presenter: Ross Astoria, JD, PhD, Professor - Political

Science & Law, Politics-Philosophy-Law Department. Ph.D., University of California, Berkeley, 2010.

His areas of expertise are Carbon Taxation, Clean Air Act, and Electrical Utility Law.

Dr. Astoria teaches courses in Public Law, Public Policy, and Political Philosophy, including Constitutional Law, Introduction to Law, Political Theory, and Environmental and Global Warming Policy.

Dr. Astoria's research is in global warming policy and governance. He has published on international trade law, utility law, New York's Reforming the Energy Vision, and California's Cap-and-Trade program.

Dr. Astoria regularly provides policy advance to non-profits working on greenhouse gas mitigation policy. Dr. Astoria grew up in Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Questions? Contact Frances Kavenik @ kavenik@uwp.edu

Register by: 11/06/2025

To register click here