Hybrid class: Online through Yuja and In-person at Wyllie D153

Our Presenter Sen. Robert Wirsch. Bob Wirsch, lifelong Kenosha resident, proud graduate of Bradford High School and the University of Wisconsin-Parkside. Veteran; served in the Army Reserve from 1965-1971; third-generation factory worker at American Brass; liaison to the Job Training Partnership Act programs.

During his time in the Legislature, Wirsch has served on numerous committees, often focusing on labor and natural resources issues. He is an appointed member of the Wisconsin Coastal Management Council. He's also served on the Legislature's budget committee, the Joint Finance Committee, and been a leader on mental health, consumer protection, and workers' rights. In addition to his legislative work, Wirsch holds frequent listening sessions in his district and prioritizes constituent services.
