AN AMENDMENT CONCERNING JURORS' RIGHTS

Ballot Title

The right to life being paramount to all other rights recognized by this Constitution and the laws of this State, it is declared and established that the legislature shall not mandate a price of human life by limiting the rights and powers of a citizen jury and that the Citizens acting as jurors have the sole authority to determine any amount of compensation owed for, or civil penalty imposed because of, injuries resulting in death or injuries resulting from acts or omissions creating a significant risk to life, provided that the General Assembly's power to protect and compensate injured and deceased workers remains in force and effect as set forth in Article 5 § 32 of the Arkansas Constitution.

Instructions to Canvassers and Signers

1. The Arkansas Constitution gives Arkansas citizens the power to (a) initiate legislation by petition of 8% of the legal voters or constitutional amendments by petition of 10% of legal voters, or (b) order the referendum against any general act or any item of an appropriation bill or measure passed by the General Assembly by petition of 6% of legal voters. A proposed measure must be submitted at a regular election. Referendum petitions may be referred at special elections on petition of 15% of the registered voters. Any measure submitted to the people becomes law when approved by a majority of the votes cast upon such measure.

2. Only registered voters may sign. All signatures must be in the signer's own handwriting and in the presence of the person circulating the petition. Each petition part should contain only the signatures of voters residing in a single county.

3. Printed name, date of birth, residence, city or town of residence, and date of signing must be given. If a petition signer needs assistance with this information due to disability, another person may print the signer's information and that person shall sign and print their name in the margin of the petition.

4. Pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 7-9-103, a person commits a Class A misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of up to $2,500 and confinement of up to one year in jail, if the person knowingly prints a name, address, or birth date other than his or her own to a petition or prints the date of signing for another person unless the signer requires assistance due to disability and the person complies with § 7-9-103.

5. Pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 5-55-601, each of the following activities constitutes "petition fraud," which is a Class D felony punishable by a fine of up to $10,000 and up to six (6) years imprisonment. Under that law, "A person commits the offense of petition fraud:

(1) If the person knowingly:

- (A) Signs a name other than his or her name to a petition;
- (B) Signs his or her name more than one (1) time to a petition; or
- (C) Signs a petition when he or she is not legally entitled to sign the petition;

(2) If the person acting as a canvasser, notary, sponsor, as defined under § 7-9-101, or agent of a sponsor:

- (A) Signs a name other than his or her own to a petition;
- (B) Prints a name, address, or birth date other than his or her own to a petition unless the signor requires assistance due to disability and the person complies with § 7-9-103;
- (C) Solicits or obtains a signature to a petition knowing that the person signing is not qualified to sign the petition;
- (D) Knowingly pays a person any form of compensation in exchange for signing a petition as a petitioner;
- (E) Accepts or pays money or anything of value for obtaining signatures on a petition when the person acting as a canvasser, sponsor, or agent of a sponsor knows that the person acting as a canvasser's name or address is not included on the sponsor's list filed with the Secretary of State under § 7-9-601; or
- (F) Knowingly misrepresents the purpose and effect of the petition or the measure affected for the purpose of causing a person to sign a petition;

(3) If the person acting as a canvasser knowingly makes a false statement on a petition verification form; [or]

(5) If the person acting as a sponsor files a petition or a part of a petition with the official charged with verifying the signatures knowing that the petition or part of the petition contains one (1) or more false or fraudulent signatures unless each false or fraudulent signature is clearly stricken by the sponsor before filing."
