

Series: You Can't Handle This. Trusting God's
Plan when you can't see His hand.
Week 2: Paul-God's Mission Continues
Text: Acts 28:30-31
Date: April 26, 2020
Speaker: Erik Dunkin

BIG IDEA: God can take events which appear to hinder His mission and transform them into moments that advance His purposes.

- Pray, Watch, Step

- Let go of anxiety related to the actions of governing bodies.

- Amid the challenges and grief, make room in your heart and in your schedule for others.

When You Can't See His Hand.
Week 2: Paul. Acts 28:30-31

1. What are some ways you feel God's work in the world might be threatened by the COVID-19 epidemic?
2. What are some examples of ministry-like activities, service to others, or key relationships that have stopped or been reduced amid lockdown?
3. Spend fifteen minutes silently reading the storyline of Acts 21-28. What observations do you see? How was God at work? At what points did it look like God wasn't at work?
4. Where else do you see instances of how God is redeeming these tragic circumstances?
5. Have you felt any anxiety or unhealthy emotions related to how governments are handling the crisis? How does your perspective need to change?
6. Amid your own challenges, have you been turning inward, or continuing to find ways to make room for others? What is the next step you could take to initiate toward others?
