Sporting Clays Shoot

On Saturday, March 5th, the Alabama-Florida Council, Boy Scouts of America will host the 23rd Annual Sporting Clays and Fun Shoot at Camp Alafla in New Brockton, Alabama. As America's fastest growing shooting sport, sporting clays has been called "golf with a gun." Competitors move from station to station through the Boy Scout Camp along a challenging course designed and managed by a leader in the industry, Howell Shooting Supplies. On the 50 target course, clays are thrown mimicking hunting presentations. A shooter may encounter flushing "quail", high overhead "dove," bounding "rabbits," or the challenging "springing teal" (straight up).

Teams & Timeline

Each team consist of 4 members.

7:30am: Check-in & Practice Rounds

9:00am: Team Orientation followed by Shoot

Noon: Lunch & Auction

1:00pm: Shoot-offs and Prizes

1:30pm: Fun Shoot Stations Open

Prizes & Awards

The event emphasis having a good time. The Lewis Class Scoring System will be used to give shooters of all skill levels from both courses a chance win a prize gun. The top scorer on each course (A & B) will receive prize guns, and the top team on each course will receive prizes. A trophy will be awarded to overall top scorer for the day.
