

WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Compliance Seminars: Executive Order 14026, "Increasing the Minimum Wage for Federal Contractors"

The U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division (WHD) will offer compliance seminars for contracting agencies, contractors, unions, workers, and other stakeholders to provide information on Executive Order 14026, "Increasing the Minimum Wage for Federal Contractors." The Federal Contract Minimum Wage Executive Order applies across the U.S. and territories and it:

- Increases the hourly minimum wage for workers performing work on or in connection with covered federal contracts to $15 beginning January 30, 2022.
- Continues to index the federal contract minimum wage in future years to inflation.
- Eliminates the tipped minimum wage for federal contract employees by 2024.
- Ensures a $15 minimum wage for workers with disabilities performing work on or in connection with covered contracts; and,
- Restores minimum wage protections to outfitters and guides operating on federal lands.

The training is the latest in WHD's ongoing efforts to increase awareness and improve compliance with federal prevailing wage requirements among employers performing work on federally funded construction or services contracts. The seminar will include video training on the Executive Order's requirements that participants may view at their convenience followed by an interactive webinar with a live Q&A session. The interactive webinar will be offered on the alternate dates of Jan. 26 and 27, 2022, and participants may register for either date.
