ENTERPRISE, Alabama –Fallen Soldiers from Enterprise will be honored by Governor Kay Ivey, U.S. Representative Barry Moore, Country Music Star David Nail, and more Friday, June 18 at 11 a.m. in The Landing Community, located 0.2 miles from Aviation Blvd. on County Road 622.

Soldiers are: Sgt. Timothy Conneway, Ens. Joshua Kaleb Watson, Spc. Andrew Hand, and Spc. Branden Neenan. They are remembered for their bravery and dedication to our Country. Their names will also be remembered in The Landing, a new modern farmhouse community. Moore, Gwendolyn Gilley and Dex Gilley, of Gwendolyn Gilley Construction, will dedicate the community while honoring the families.

In show of support, members of the Wiregrass District at Patriot Guard Riders of Alabama, Enterprise High School JROTC Wildcat Battalion, Enterprise Chamber of Commerce officials, City of Enterprise officials, and more will attend to support these families.

“I am truly touched to be singing in honor of your fallen soldiers,” said Nail. “Their sacrifice for our freedom shall not be forgotten.”

GGC will hold events throughout the weekend for anyone interested in visiting the dedicated areas or learning more about building a home in the community.
