

The Military Child Is Like a Dandelion

It puts down roots almost anywhere.

It's almost impossible to destroy.

It's an unpretentious plant, yet good looking.

It's a survivor in a broad range of climates.

Military children bloom everywhere the winds carry them.

They are hardy and upright.

Their roots are strong, cultivated ...deeply in the culture of the military, planted swiftly and surely.

They're ready to fly in the breezes that take them to new adventures, new lands, and new friends.
