

Members of the Gray Lab recently attended the Carolinas Society of Environmental Toxicology. Austin Gray presented the plenary talk, entitled, "Two Roads Diverged along a Changing Planet: The Past, Present, and Future of Ecosystem Ecology and Ecotoxicology." Beija Gore (left) won the Third Place Award for Best Platform Presentation and Allison Montgomery (right) won the First Place Award for Best Undergraduate Poster. Congratulations to both! Additional photos from the trip below.

