Introducing: SummerBlast!

Greenfield Community Summer 2019 Camp

SummerBlast! pilot in the Greenfield community. Join Captain Kurk, Greenfield teachers, parents and community for a summer full of fun, learning and exploration! Discover the magic of using our CEO programs to learn, grow and experience new adventures. What better way to spend a summer than learning through play, experimentation, discovery, and new experiences? Don't miss out on the summer of a lifetime!

CEO (Creative Experiences and Opportunities) extends Captain Kurk's social learning and self-development techniques with the exceptional quality of Albert M Greenfield teachers and talented parents to develop a unique summer camp. Our pilot for rising grade 1-8 students integrates recreational fun and exciting adventures through creative STEAM+DREAMS workshops (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts/Athletics, and Mathematics + Design, Relationships, Experimentation, Applied-learning, Moxie, Storytelling): project-based integrated learning workshops that encourage experimentation, teamwork and collaboration. SummerBlast! provides kids creative opportunities for curiosity, play and invention. We encourage passionate dreamers—by meeting, engaging, and expanding children's interests, shaping curious minds driven to question, experiment, and invent.

$150 per week per child (2019 intro special)
Places are limited; register today to avoid missing out!!

CEO provides innovative summer and winter recess urban day camps through a scalable STEAM+DREAMS initiative extending out-of-school programs into a whole-year continuous learning concept. We support and collaborate with public education, and that catalyzes creative thinking through carefully curated experiences and hands-on opportunities, while reinforcing core skills. CEO approaches learning through experimentation as exploration, an iterative cycle of curiosity, play, and discovery. We use best practices in learning innovation to provide opportunities for academic success, self-development, participation, and leadership, while bringing out the inner playful child in everyone. We empower kids to achieve their dreams, and enable a life-long creative approach to problem solving that will empower future generations of changemakers, generating more inclusive, diversified, and equitable futures. We teach new ways of thinking, seeing, exploring, and experimenting—through experience.

CEO supports Albert M Greenfield School and community, and donates a % of your registration to Greenfield HSA.
