

Maricopa County

Correctional Health Services Psychiatrist

About the Position

$230,984 - $292,760 Annually

Are you looking to work in a collaborative environment with other medical and mental health professionals? Do you want a position where you can make a positive difference in the lives of others? Does work-life balance and being a part of a dynamic industry-leading team sound good to you? If so, Correctional Health Services (CHS) in Phoenix, Arizona, may be the place for you.

Correctional Health Services, one of the largest county jail healthcare systems, is seeking a BE/BC Psychiatrist for an exciting opportunity to work with incarcerated individuals. As a CHS Psychiatrist, you will work within an interdisciplinary team to provide integrated health care to patients navigating the judicial system.

You will have the opportunity to impact people when they are at their most difficult times, giving you a unique ability to make substantial positive changes in the lives of incarcerated individuals, their families, and the community.
