Speaker-Elect's (Acting Speaker) Welcome — Mary Jo Fitz-Gerald, MD

Dr. Mary Jo Fitz-Gerald, MD welcomed everyone to the 94th Meeting of the APA Assembly. She noted that this was the second Assembly Meeting being held in a virtual format, given the continuing recommended social gathering restrictions related to the COVID-19 pandemic. She highlighted that officer reports during the plenary sessions would be abbreviated to allow for maximal time for Assembly business. Full reports from all of the officers can be found in the Assembly Packet. (Key issues addressed in the Speaker-Elect's full report as Acting Speaker included: the COVID-19 Pandemic, structural racism, mental health legislation, APA budget, MOC, and APA governance.) She then led the Assembly to observe a moment of silence for Dr. Joseph C. Napoli, MD, who passed away just 2 weeks prior to the meeting while still serving as our Assembly Speaker.

Report of Recorder (Acting Speaker-Elect) — Adam Nelson, MD

Dr. Adam Nelson, MD declared that sufficient members were present in the virtual Assembly Meeting to constitute a quorum. Minutes & Summary of Actions from November 2020 were approved by the Assembly. He welcomed new members to the Assembly and invited guests to the April 2021 meeting. NOTE: The Assembly did not approve retirement of the Position Statement on Health Care, effectively retaining it. The Assembly felt that Health Care (inclusive of Mental Health Care) as a human right was important enough that it should remain as a stand-alone position, despite inclusion in the Position Statement on Universal Health Care in the United States which was previously approved by the Assembly in April 2020 and the BOT in July 2020. Although redundant from an administrative perspective, it was felt that this emphasizes its importance.

Report on APA Finances – Kevin Madden, CFO, APA

Kevin Madden, CFO for the APA provided a high-level overview of the APA’s financial position which continues to be strong. Although actual performance indicated a total Net Loss of $1.3M for 2020, this was far better than was expected given the confluence of the COVID-19 Pandemic. The greatest loss of revenue occurred as a result of canceling the April 2020 Annual APA Meeting. This was somewhat offset by strong publishing results which was over budget. The APA’s Net Investment Return was also higher than expected, with unrestricted Net Assets increasing by $8.5M over 2019. A full Treasurer’s Report & Financial Dashboard can be reviewed in the Assembly Packet

Report of the APA President – Dr. Jeffrey Geller, MD

Dr. Jeffrey Geller, MD who will relinquish the role of President at the conclusion of the 2021 Annual Meeting was provided limited time to address the Assembly. The theme of his presidency focused on diversity and inclusion through the creation of a Presidential Task Force to Address Structural Racism throughout Psychiatry. Despite the COVID-19 Pandemic which forced all work to be conducted in a virtual environment, multiple workgroups and workstreams contributed efforts to complete a comprehensive and transparent internal assessment of the APA. While much of that effort focused on identifying actionable items for change and led to the apology letter issued by the Board of Trustees in January (APA Apology), additional work will be needed for many years to come. This year’s annual meeting highlights our complex journey to eliminate disparities and achieve equity with its theme, “Finding Equity Through Advances in Mind & Brain in Unsettled Times”.

Report of the APA CEO/CMO – Dr. Saul Levin, MD

- Dr. Saul Levin, MD provided a summary of his CEO/CMO Report. The 4 key issues included:
1. APA Communications – Media engagement for 2020 was greater than any previous year with 16.5% of those occurring through major national outlets. Of note, the APA’s Apology became the most viewed media post of the past 5 years with almost 75,000 pageviews since posting.
 2. Membership – The APA’s membership count was down by 3.6% for a total of 37,420 members. A decline was anticipated, as renewal pace slowed in March 2020 in conjunction with the pandemic.
 3. APA Publishing - This year proved to be challenging for the publishing industry as channels of distribution were disrupted, and hardcopy sales associated with meetings and conferences dipped. Demand for online material remained strong, as well as sales for hardcopy DSM-5. Total net revenue was still $2M.
 4. MOC (Maintenance of Certification) – Active discourse continues between the APA and ABPN to address key concerns with respect to MOC. Key concerns raised by the Assembly were conveyed to the ABPN to include that the APA will be acknowledging the National Board of Physicians and Surgeons (NBPAS) as a potential alternative board for APA members who need to participate in MOC. Additionally, the APA will be conducting a feasibility study of establishing its own board for both initial and ongoing certification.

Comments from the President-elect – Dr. Vivian B. Pender, MD

Dr. Vivian B. Pender, MD who will assume the role of President at the conclusion of the 2021 Annual Meeting was provided limited time to address the Assembly. She highlighted that as the COVID-19 Pandemic subsides, we cannot return to the 'normal' that was left behind. She noted that the COVID-19 Pandemic exposed multiple challenges that threaten the health and well-being of all society. To that end, she reiterated that she will focus her Presidency on addressing these challenges through the creation of a Presidential Task Force on the Social Determinants of Mental Health. She briefly outlined the four broad areas (social, economic, environmental, and political) that ultimately have the greatest adverse impact on mental health. As experts in mental health and mental illness, our efforts will be focused through the lenses of population health and systems of care. The goal is to, "educate psychiatrists, the private sector, and the government and advocate for solutions."

Commendations

Many thanks to Drs. William Greenberg, Leslie Gise, Eugene Lee, and Nazanin Silver who presented a tribute in Memoriam for Dr. Napoli at the beginning of our Assembly Meeting, and those who remained online after the meeting to offer respects.

He showed strength, courage and a fighting spirit to the end.

He was a leader both in the APA and the Assembly, and in the field of disaster preparedness and response.

He was a man who worked hard and with passion, but always knew how to make a joke, and how to lighten up any meeting.

Thank you, Joe, for your contributions to our association and to the APA Assembly.
