

The Penn Legacy Badge

Black - one of the original colors of Hempfield Soccer Club. Also, a recognition of the All Blacks (New Zealand) rugby team, that has the highest winning percentage in all of professional sports, but more impressively, has a massive reputation for sportsmanship and humility.

Gold - a tribute to the Olympic ideal, of constantly striving to be the best you can be.

Shape - The shield format is taken from one of the most iconic club badges in history, that of River Plate from Argentina.

1977 - the year the club Hempfield Soccer Club was formed.

Club - we are here, we represent stability and tradition, we provide a home for our players and our members. We are all part of one club.

Penn - to help identify where we come from when our teams travel out of state for tournaments, and abroad on European trips.

Legacy - this club has always tried to be more than just a vehicle for teams to play. We strive to be an important and positive presence in the lives of our players; to give back, and to be there through tough times. We want to build a legacy for our players and families, and we want everyone to be a part of it.

Football - of course the game is more widely known as soccer in this country, but this reminds us that, even in our small corner of Pennsylvania, we are part of the global phenomenon that is the sport of football.
