Hafa adai to members of the Guam Chamber of Commerce,

Congratulations again on your organization's 100th anniversary! The Pacific Island Times is happy to have co-sponsored your jubilee gala earlier this year, and to have celebrated with you all at that event.

At this time, we invite each of you to take a(nother) good look at the Times for your company's publicity needs. This regional news and advertising outlet produces a monthly print/digital edition and a more timely, free website at www.pacificislandtimes.com.

The Times has hooked nearly 30,000 readers by now. They include:

- Print and digital subscribers throughout Micronesia, across the USA and beyond.
- Online (FaceBook and other social media) followers numbering more than 12,000 and increasing daily.
- A cumulative monthly total of 11,000-plus "unique visitors."

The Times has grown since 2016 from being the "new kid on the block" in Guam's media industry into the premier regional news product of our day. It has circulated since then, uninterrupted by the global Covid-19 pandemic or Typhoon Mawar. In fact, the U.S. Library of Congress recently chose to add each monthly issue of the Times to its archival system.

Why not promote your company in the distinctive Pacific Island Times? This newsmagazine is about all of US, living here and now. If your company does business in this region, get with the Times and:

- Enhance your company or group's brand name.
- Commemorate your particular anniversary.
- Solidify your commitment to economic prosperity in our islands.
- Advertise your high-quality products and services.
- Promote your company's seasonal programs and special events.

Finally, if nothing else, subscribe now for only $25/year and visit our website 24/7 for the latest news from Micronesia and the entire Pacific. (Again, it's free.)

Thank you for your kind consideration and RSVP.

Sincerely,

Jan Furukawa
