DEPARTMENT OF VITICULTURE AND ENOLOGY

WEEKLY VITICULTURE-ENOLOGY 199 FALL SEMINAR SERIES WEBINAR

Wednesdays from noon to 1 pm *— On ZOOM — Visit fresnostate.edu/jcast/ve for details

Organized by
Viticulture Faculty & Bronco Wine Co. Viticulture Research Chair
LUCA BRILLANTE

Luca Brillante joined the Department of Viticulture and Enology faculty in the Fall of 2018 as the Bronco Viticulture Chair and Assistant Professor of Viticulture. Prior to this appointment he was a Post-Doc Researcher for the UC Davis Department of Viticulture and Enology, working on precision viticulture and implementation of variable rate and site specific management approaches.

In his position at Fresno State he focuses on wine grape production and vineyard management, and teaches in the areas of general viticulture, mechanized viticulture, and advanced grape and vine enterprise management in cooperation with the campus vineyard and winery management personnel. In addition, Brillante serves as the Viticulture and Enology Graduate Program Coordinator, advises students, supervises student research projects, and engages in a rigorous scientific research program.

Dr. Brillante is pleased to coordinate a wide range of grape and wine industry experts for this weekly Seminar Series class that is held virtually on Wednesdays at noon. For our Fall 2021 Seminar Series schedule and details, visit fresnostate.edu/jcast/ve
