

COLLEGE NOW GREATER CLEVELAND

THANK YOU, LEE FRIEDMAN, FOR 14 YEARS OF GROWTH & EXCELLENCE

● 2010: A NEW BEGINNING

- Lee Friedman becomes CEO of Cleveland Scholarship Programs
- Reach: 20,000 students in 76 schools in Cuyahoga and Lorain counties
- Budget: $5M | Employees: 40
- Scholarships Awarded: $2.7M
- Focus: College enrollment, not completion
- Lee's First Hire: Dr. Michele Scott Taylor as Chief Programs Officer

● 2011: REBRANDING & MENTORSHIP

- Organization renamed College Now Greater Cleveland - becomes the largest comprehensive community-based college access org. in the U.S.
- Launched Mentoring Program to increase college retention and graduation rates; pilot cohort of 43 mentors/students

● 2013-2022: MILESTONE GROWTH

- 2013: First Bag Lady Luncheon fundraiser for Mentoring Program
- 2019: Helped bring Say Yes to Education to Cleveland, offering $100M in scholarships to CMSD graduates
- 2021: Launched Planning and Career Exploration (PACE) curriculum
- 2022: Began managing Cleveland Foundation's 60 scholarships

● 2024: RECENT ACHIEVEMENTS

- CEO Transition: Dr. Michele Scott Taylor named next CEO
- Scholarships Awarded: $9.3M | Cumulative Total (Since 1967): $111M
- Budget: $40M | Employees: 175
- Reach: 38,000 individuals in 200 locations in 5 counties (Cuyahoga, Lake, Lorain, Richland, Summit)
- Bags & Bourbon: Raises $370K for Mentoring Program
- Lee Friedman Student Emergency Fund: Nearly $150K raised

● 2025: LOOKING AHEAD

- Expansion: Serving 4,800 additional students via two GEAR UP grants

RECENT COMMUNITY RECOGNITION & AWARDS

- Lee Friedman:

- 2024 Richard A. Shatten Award, Greater Cleveland Partnership
- 2024 Business Hall of Fame, Cleveland Magazine
- 2023 Notables in Education Leadership, Crain's Cleveland Business

- Michele Scott Taylor:

- 2024 Citizen of the Year, Zeta Omega Chapter, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.
- 2024 Woman of Note, Crain's Cleveland Business
- 2024 Emerging Leader, Team NEO

COLLABORATIVE IMPACT PARTNERS

- 2011: Cleveland mayor Frank Jackson and other community leaders launch the Higher Education Compact of Greater Cleveland to align efforts in growing college attainment for CMSD students. College Now is a partner and fiscal agent.
- 2019: Say Yes to Education launched in Cleveland. Lee was a driving force in bringing $100M in college scholarships to CMSD graduates. College Now is Say Yes Cleveland's fiscal agent.
- 2021: Planning and Career Exploration (PACE) established. Curriculum-based career exploration that complements our postsecondary advising.
- 2022: Greater Cleveland Career Consortium (GCCC) established with multiple partners, including College Now, to help Northeast Ohio students design their best-fit career plan.

BY THE NUMBERS: THEN & NOW

THEN (2011-2012):

Individuals served: 20,000

Annual Budget: $5 million

Employees: 40+

AmeriCorps College Guides: 15+

NOW (2024-2025):

Individuals served: 38,000 (90% increase)

*Annual Budget: $37.5 million, including fiscal agencies in operations (607% increase)

Employees: 175 (313% increase)

AmeriCorps College Guides: 25+ (67% increase)