

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION
OF FLORIDA'S SPACE COAST

ENROLL NOW

CERTIFIED PRODUCTION TECHNICIAN

Prepare for certification by the Manufacturing Skills Standards Council

A nationally recognized, portable, industry-wide manufacturing credential

What: A 10 week, hybrid course through Eastern Florida State College (both online and hands-on lab exercises) in preparation for the Manufacturing Skills Standards Council CPT certification

When: January 23, 2017 start date

Cost: $675 includes labs, MSSC materials and exams*
(Discounted from full $1,550 through Florida TRADE)

Contact: For more information on how to enroll, please contact Patty Boatman at EFSC 321-433-7514 or Victoria Northrup at 321.638-2000 or vnorthrup@cfl.rr.com.

Learn More:

<http://www.msscusa.org/production-certification-cpt>

Taught through EFSC and made possible by support from Florida TRADE through a U.S. Dept. of Labor TAACCCT grant & FHTCC

- Open doors to a rewarding career pathway
- Enhance skills to succeed in today's modern manufacturing environment
- Manufacturers - enhance internal opportunities for promotions

- Flexible online instruction
- Eight hours of learning by module each week
- EFSC Lab/Shop alternating Wednesdays

Earn College Credits – MSSC CPT certification is worth 16 credits toward an Engineering Technology/Advanced Manufacturing Associate's Degree at EFSC

"The CPT designation is how I know in an instant if someone has the foundational skills to be successful in manufacturing at Harris"

– Mike Ennis, Manufacturing Engineer & Supervisor, Harris Corporation

Supporting Organizations:

Eastern Florida
STATE COLLEGE

