

PALM BAY, Fla. - The 2016 Health First Palm Bay Hospital Holiday Light Parade was held on Saturday, December 3 in Palm Bay. Over 75 different organizations participated in the parade. The judges' scores have been tabulated and the winners were chosen.

The winner in the Best Animal Group category was the Brevard County Sherriff's Office. The winner for Best Float was Calvary Chapel Fellowship of Melbourne. In the School Group category, the Heritage High School Marching Panther Band took top honors. The Best Motorized Vehicle entry was Palm Bay 7th-Day Adventist Church. The winner in the Best Walking Group category went to Weichert Realtors Hallmark Properties. Finally, the entry chosen as having the Best Representation of the Parade Theme, "Home for the Holidays - Honoring Our Veterans", was the American Legion Post #117.

For pictures from the parade please visit www.facebook.com/palmbayfl and www.facebook.com/pbflparks.