Candidates for Laughlin Chamber of Commerce Board Members

Laughlin Business Division

Nomination Committee Chair:

- Brie Tyler, Laughlin Chamber Vice Chairman & Our Town Magazine

Nomination Committee Members at Large:

- Jennifer Ronan, Chamber Member & CIT Bank (aka Mutual of Omaha)
- Fred Doten, Chamber Chairman & National Historian American Legion Post 60

Fred Doten

The committee is nominating Fred for re-election. He has been a resident of Laughlin, NV since 2005. Doten is a retired Army officer who after retirement, worked in Aerospace as a Test Pilot and Program Manager. Since retiring and coming to Laughlin, he has been very involved within the community. He served 3 terms on the Laughlin Town Advisor Board with his last term as the board's chair. Doten is involved in the American Legion, serving in several positions at community, state and national levels. He also is the present chair of the Board of Directors of the Laughlin Chamber of Commerce. His desire is to serve another term with the Chamber.

Chuck Coplan

The committee is nominating Chuck for re-election. Chuck has lived in Laughlin for over 29 years and has family in the area. He has volunteered for other non-profits, besides the Laughlin Chamber, including Rotary and Kiwanis. He has been on the Chamber Board of Directors for of 10 years serving as the Treasurer. He is the most respected CPA in Laughlin and is proud to have provided many hours of complimentary tax preparation for refugees and citizens in need.

Kathy Ochs

The committee is nominating Kathy for re-election due to her many years of service on the Laughlin Chamber of Commerce Board (20 years) of Directors and the Laughlin Town Advisory Board (13 years). Kathy has lived in Laughlin since 1994 and continues to work on the issues that impact growth in Laughlin by challenging the building depart, communication businesses and the Southern Nevada Health Department to ensure that services are expedited to business owners in our township. She owns KEO, Inc. which is the corporation that operates Cinnabon, Red Mango Juice Bar, Red Brick Pizza and Seattle's Best Coffee In Laughlin. Her most recent investment in Laughlin in the Paws Haus in the Mall.

Jennifer Ronan

The committee is nominating Jennifer Ronan. Jennifer has been in the area since 2008. Jennifer is a banking professional with 15 years of experience in helping small business throughout their business life cycles from startup to retirement. Jennifer is now the financial center manager for CIT Bank (formerly Mutual of Omaha Bank)

Gary Isaac, Peake Development

The committee is nominating Gary because of his home construction business. He has an excellent understanding of the building codes of Clark County and the marketing trends within the housing market. He was very instrumental in trying to set up an OSHA card training program within the high school.

Deborah Markham, CDM Management

The committee is nominating Deborah at CDM Management, due to her knowledge of the housing market as it pertains to owner occupied and rentals. She could give insight on trends and needs in the area.

Chris Elder, River City Reality

The committee is nominating Chris Elder as he has been in the Laughlin area for many years and brings with that his years of experience in the local market. This can be beneficial to market trends. Chris has a great reputation from his clients and seems to be of good character.

Allen Shore, Shore Paining

The committee is nominating Allen because of his business. He represents a service-oriented business that caters to the community needs. I suspect his insights in to permitting, customer satisfaction, and stability of these type services would be beneficial to making some decisions.

Mary Green, Property Manager at The Vistas

The committee is nominating Mary because she is representative of a large part of the housing market within Laughlin. Trends, issues, and the stability of housing and status of renting is something we should be aware of.

Nomination Committee Members at Large:

- Mijung Lombardi, Chamber Member & Horizon Community Bank
- Debbie Hunter, Chamber Member & Debbie's Dispensary

Lance Ross, Director of Public Relations & Community Relations, Colorado River Schools

The committee is nominating Lance due to his continued commitment to the Laughlin Chamber of Commerce. He oversees the media, community and social media outreach for the Colorado River Schools. Lance also organizes crisis communications professional development and training with colleagues and peers as Chair of the Tri-State Public Information Officers working group. Lance has given his time and energy to many organizations including MASH (Multiple Avenues of Successful Healthcare), Mohave County Airport Authority, Laughlin Town Advisory Board, and serves as a board member of the River Fund, Inc., and the Colorado River Food Bank.

Debbie Hunter, Owner and Founder, Debbie's Dispensary

The committee is nominating Debbie Hunter because being a lifelong Tri-State resident, born and raised. She has a deep understanding of what this community needs. From donating over 300K since 2013 she is very community involved. Running a business with tight state regulations and being looked at as a prime example for Arizona Department of Health Services. Debbie's Dispensary is an Arizona Medical Card regulated dispensary.

Mijung Lombardi, Market President Horizon Community Bank, Fort Mohave Branch

The committee is nominating Mijung Lombardi because her excellent leadership she has shown in just her short time with the Horizon Community Bank. Her involvement within the different clubs of our community along with devoting her personal time to volunteering throughout the Tri-State area. Mijung serves on several area boards, volunteers and runs fundraising events benefitting the tri-state area.

Dominick Dragone, Vice President and Marketing, Mad Dog Wireless Radio Stations

The committee is nominating Dominick Dragon for his excellent role in communications. Having been part of the local radio stations for over 10 years he is very community oriented. His customer service to his costumers is the best in the industry. He dedicates his personal time to broadcast for local events such as, Boys and Girls Club or The Farmers Market. His involvement to raise awareness and money for our Tri-State area is exactly what we need.

Anita Bray, Owner Javalina's Coffee Express

The committee is the owner of Javalina's Coffee Express. Anita believes it is about family, community, neighbors and other businesses just like hers. Javalina's sells coffee, smoothies and sandwiches. They have been in business for 5 years and continue to give back to our schools and community events; raising over 20k in the last few years and 10k in just 2018 for the Tri-state area. Since opening their new location, they started the "9 Second Rule"; a pledge that has already encouraged hundreds of people to use 9 seconds out of their day to perform a simple act of kindness. Anita's passion is helping others, since day one of business.
