

Civic Engagement Opportunities

1

Provide Insight for New Public Art at Emerald Hills Park

The City of San Diego has commissioned artist Marlana Adele Vassar to create a site-specific artwork for Emerald Hills Park as part of the park's ongoing improvements. Community members are invited to watch a recording of the artist's presentation and share their ideas about Emerald Hills through an online survey by Aug. 15.

2

Share Your Feedback: FY2026 CAPER

The City of San Diego's Draft FY 2026 Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER) will be available for public review and comment from Aug. 31 through Sept. 15, 2026.

The CAPER provides an annual look at the City's progress toward its housing and community development goals and how federal funds were used during the year.

Community members are invited to review the draft and share their feedback by 5 p.m. on Sept. 15. The report will be available online at sandiego.gov/cdbg, with printed copies available at select City libraries, including Central, Valencia Park/Malcolm X, San Ysidro, Logan Heights, Linda Vista and City Heights/Weingart.

Comments can be submitted by email to cdbg@sandiego.gov.

