GRANT OPPORTUNITIES

Capacity Building Grant

The City of San Diego's Capacity Building Grant Program provides funding to nonprofit organizations that strengthen small businesses, commercial corridors, and neighborhoods in under-resourced communities throughout the City of San Diego. Through two funding tracks, the program supports projects that promote economic opportunity, community well-being, and neighborhood vitality in the San Diego Promise Zone, Opportunity Zones, LMI census tracts, and/or in otherwise under-resourced communities. The FY27 grant opportunity will go live on August 10.

Award Amount: Up to $15,000
Deadline: Sept. 15, 2026

Wildlife Conservation Board's Public Access Program

Access to nature is critical to human health and wellbeing, yet outdoor access and its many benefits are not equitably distributed or equally welcoming to all communities. WCB supports California's Outdoors for All Initiative by funding Planning and Construction projects that support wildlife-oriented recreation and nature-focused education throughout the state.
